Camp Sierra, near Big Creek on the road to Huntington Lake, is about sixty miles east of Fresno and is reached by motor either by way of Auberry or the Toll House Grade. Those from the south can save time by turning off at Kingsburg.

The registration fee is $2.00 and charge for board and lodging for the period is $10.00. For a short stay the charge is $2.50 per day.

Blankets will be provided. Sheets, pillow case, towels and soap must be brought by each person.

Monday, June 18th, will be devoted to registration and getting settled in lodgings, with a get together social hour in the evening, following Dean Bode's first class. The other classes begin on Tuesday morning. The afternoons are left free for rest and recreation, also for individual conferences and discussions.

THE FACULTY

Dean Beal of St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles, will give a course on "The History of The Book of Common Prayer." Dean Bode of Sierra Madre, and outstanding authority on "Church Music" will interpret that subject, Miss Nobuko Yanagimachi, a graduate of the University of Washington and the Pacific School of Religion, will give the course on "Japan." Dean Farlander speaks on "The Apocrypha." These courses are open to all members of the Conference.

For the women present a discussion group will be led by Mrs. J. Benson Wrenn.

The clergy will hold a round table discussion at the same time on their mutual problems.

Mrs. J. Edison Adams will have general oversight of "The Young People's Group." A program of a more serious nature is planned for Thursday evening. Friday will be "Young People's Day," when it is hoped that many boys and girls from the District can arrange to come up for at least one day, in addition to those who come up for the whole period. Friday evening the grand final stunt night will be observed. Those who can play are asked to bring their instruments and music.
