Organic Music to Be Feature at Service

Mrs. Laura E. Nichols has arranged organic music in connection with the o'clock service this morning at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church. The numbers will be: Prelude, Chorus of Agape (P. Scorpion Clark), Deep River, arr. Francis Colles-Taylor. Holy communion will be celebrated at 8 o'clock in accordance with the service of morning prayer at 11. There will be no Sunday school held during the summer.

Local Pastor Will Attend Reunion of Harvard Class

The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, left last evening for a two weeks' trip to Cambridge, Massachusetts, to attend the twentieth-fifth reunion of the class of 1892 at Harvard University. The Reverend William A. Cash, of Merced, former rector of St. Paul's, will officiate at the local church on Sunday, June 20, and the Reverend Robert Bray, Taft, on Sunday, June 27, the latter being available for any emergency call the next two weeks.

Mrs. William E. Patrick and her family are settled at their Rincon del Mar cottage, near Carpinteria, where they will remain until school opens in September.

Rev. W. E. Patrick Presides at Cambridge

The quarterly meeting of the executive council of the Protestant Episcopal District of San Juan was held yesterday at St. James' Cathedral House, Fresno. The Reverend William E. Patrick, pre-president, presiding in the absence of the Right Reverend Louis C. Stanton, D.D., bishop of San Joaquin, who will some active work in the fall after a summer's rest at his beach cottage house at Newport Beach. The rector and the Reverend Audrey O. Bray, vicar of St. Andrews', Church, also attended the quarterly meeting of the Cathedral Chapter on Monday evening.

ST. PAUL'S WILL RESUME IN FALL

Need of Repairs Reason for Discontinuing Services at Church Early

In order that some much needed repairs to the church fabric may be started within a few days, services at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church will be discontinued on Sunday, June 27, and Sunday school will not meet during the week. The church will be closed from the second Sunday in September, the service on Sunday, July 11, will be an ordination service at the morning service yesterday, this action was voted at the latest meeting of the rector, was deemed by some of the vestrymen held last week, when the finance committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stimson, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Street, reported that sufficient funds had been pledged to warrant a beginning of the alterations.

Another item which will involve dismantling the nave of the church and removing the pews will be the removal of the two platforms on which the pews stand. These platforms have been a source of danger to members of the congregation through catching their heels in stepping down to the choir proper. It is planned to give the floor a thorough scraping and re-touching and to put down a new carpet for the center aisle.

In this year the finance committee hopes to raise additional funds for the new work, and the church will be as beautiful as it ever was when the work is done.

The Reverend Mr. Patrick will return to his post as rector, and the church will be able to hold services as usual.

Baptist Church

The program of music at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church for the 11 o'clock service on Sunday will be as follows: Organ Prelude by Mrs. Laura E. Nichols, Andante Allegro from Seventh Symphony (Vidor), Allegro Maestoso (John E. West); processional hymn, "Stand Up for Jesus" (West); Benedictus 9. and Jubilate, Anglican chant; hymn before the offertory, "Holy, Holy, Holy" (Dykes); offerlry hymn, "O Master, Let Mo Walk With Thee," by the Spinetdonology, Old Hundredth; recessional hymn, "The Church's One Foundation" (Wezley): and Benedicamus. Grand Cheeur (William Spence). Organ services and Sunday school morning include holy communion at 8 o'clock and opening session of Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock.

Rev. W. E. Patrick Back From Fine Harvard Reunion

The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, returned yesterday from a short visit to Boston, Massachusetts, where he attended the twenty-fifth reunion of the class of 1892 at Harvard University. On Sunday, June 20, he preached at St. Michael's Church, Milton, and on Sunday last week, gave the invocation and benediction at the class service at the Harvard Memorial Church, a service conducted by the six minister members of the class under the chairmanship of the Reverend J. Gordon Gillies, D.D., of the Mount Vernon Congregational Church, Springfield, Massachusetts. On commencement day, June 24, which completed the four-day reunion, the local pastor had the honor of serving as one of the aids to Hugh Lawrence Gaddis of Cleveland, Ohio, chief marshal of the day.

Services will continue during July at St. Paul's Church each Sunday at 8 and 11 o'clock.

REPORT OF ST. PAUL'S ALTAR GUILD 1936

It has been said that all the Altar Guild does is polish the brass once or twice a year. For that reason, I'd like to give a detailed account of the many interesting duties that we perform weekly. The flowers or berries for the altar have to be gone after, as a rule, before the altar can be decorated. The communion vessels are arranged, the credence shelf is put in order, and so on.

On an average of two surplices are washed and ironed weekly by the members on duty for that particular month, and as the congregation leaves the church, some members of the Altar Guild go to the back to put things in order. We do try to polish the brass twice a year, besides arranging the altar for weddings, funerals and extra communion services that are held during the year. There is one member that takes as her responsibility the laundering of the Fair Linen Cloths, and we consider this quite a responsibility. At the end of every month, the cut-glass cruets for the wine and water are polished, also the silver that we use; and the extra pieces of linen, such as the corporals, purificators, etc., are left freshly laundered for the next members who will serve the following month.
The Altar Guild work is quite a responsibility, but it is such a vital part of our church life that it is thoroughly enjoyed by those who are willing and able to give the time to it. We would welcome some new members. There are no dues and very few formal meetings—we had only one during 1936 for election of new offers; but there was a working meeting forty-eight Saturday afternoons during 1936. We may not have money-making events, so, our linens, ribbons, silver and glass are all donations. There are only five "Saturday afternoon members" at present, but we are hoping for some new members in the near future.

The officers for 1937 are: Laura Covel, Secretary and Treasurer, Katherine S. Wakefield, President.

Respectfully submitted,

Katherine S. Wakefield

GUILD TO MEET
St. Margaret's Guild will meet
Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Guild hall. The Reverend William E. Patrick will speak on the recent synod meeting held at Seattle. Miss McScate, president, will conduct the session. Mrs.
Percy Cool, in chairman.
Major General Paul B. Malone, retired, father of Paul B. Malone, Jr., of the Anglo-California National Bank in Bakersfield, who will be the Armistice day speaker here in memorial services at 11 o'clock next Thursday morning in Fox theater. He will be introduced by the Rev. William E. Patrick, once chaplain in his regiment.
Major Paul B. Malone, Armistice day speaker here who is widely known as a public speaker, had a distinguished record of service in France during the World War, receiving many decorations for bravery.

The distinguished service cross was awarded him in 1921 for extraordinary heroism in the battle of Soissons in July, 1918. He also won the distinguished service medal in 1919 for exceptionally meritorious services in France; four silver stars citations for gallantry in action; the Croix de Guerre of France with two palms and one star; and has been named an officer of the Legion of Honor of France and a commander of the Crown of Italy. He holds the victory and other American campaign medals for service in battle.

Leaving for France as lieutenant-colonel in July, 1917, General Malone served with the operations section, GHQ; was promoted to colonel and became chief of the training section on the general staff; and in February, 1918, was assigned to command the Twenty-third U. S. Infantry, second division, and commanded his regiment in the trenches south of Verdun, in the Aisne-Marne offensive, in the Chateau-Thierry operations, and in the Aisne-Marne offensive.

By coincidence, the Reverend William E. Patrick, who will introduce General Malone on Armistice day, was chaplain of the regiment which he commanded in France. The Reverend Patrick, past national chaplain of the American Legion, also won the distinguished service cross.

General Malone in August, 1918, was assigned to command the Tenth brigade of the Fifth division, leading it in the St. Mihuel offensive and Meuse-Argonne offensive, and forcing the Meuse river and capturing the high ground to the east. In October he was made brigadier general temporarily, an appointment made permanent in 1922, and commanded the Tenth brigade after the Armistice in Luxembourg, and later the Third brigade on the Rhine.

The speaker is a member of the Rotary Club, San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the Baltimore Association of Commerce, the Elks, Pacific Union Club of San Francisco, the Army and Navy Club of San Francisco and the American Legion. He is well known as a public speaker on many subjects, such as insurance, transportation, unemployment, community welfare, art, music and religions, according to Z. V. Hoskins, Legion chairman in charge of Armistice day preparations.

The Rev. Aubrey Bray, Vicar
Res. Savoy Hotel, Phone 486, Office at the Church
The ministers of the various parishes and missions have been asked to exchange pulpits today and preach on the subject of Stewardship. The Vicar is pleased to exchange with the Rev. Wm. E. Patrick, Rector of St. Paul's, Bakersfield. Mr. Patrick is well known in Taft. The Vicar is sure all will enjoy his sermon. He is one of the outstanding preachers in the Diocese.

"Our possessions—to spend them on perishable things is to build on sand, and waste all. But to share them with men through the Church's mission is to render them imperishable. Yesterday's luxuries are barely a memory, while our offerings to speed the Gospel of Christ themselves in life after life." Forward Movement.

St. Andrew's Guild meets Thursday, Oct. 29th at the home of Mrs. Popc Foster, 209 B. Street. The meeting begins at 9:30 A. M., and continues all day, with Pot-luck lunch. All women of the church or friends of the church, are invited. The purpose of the meeting is to sow on the aprons for the bazaar.

ST. LUKE’S CHURCH, MERCED
(The Rev. W. A. Cash, Vicar)

We all know Merced as the Gate Way to Yosemite, know it by the dome of the court house which is the first thing we see as we approach it on the highway. But how many know it by St. Luke’s Church, with its beautiful plant and its well kept lawn and gardens?

Merced, and St. Luke’s mission with it, has not developed as rapidly as some others of our county town and missions. The reason for this lies in the great ranches, with their manor houses, which surround it, and occupy a large part of the arable land about it.

The division of these great ranches, and their settlement as small farms has been very slow, so the city has not grown as rapidly as have Modesto, Hanford, Visalia and Fresno.

The Mission

Merced was one of the many places where Church work was begun by the Rev. D. O. Kelley when he came to the San Joaquin Valley forty-nine years ago. In those days it seemed far from Fresno, the base of his operations. He held occasional services and began to get acquainted, but it was too years before regular services were begun.

In the fall of 1880, the Rev. L. Mott came to assist Mr. Kelley. He made his home in Modesto and began regular ministrations at Merced, organized a ladies guild and on the 20th of August, 1881, the Mission of St. Luke. During the summer of 1883, chiefly by the efforts of the Rev. Mott, lots were secured for the court house park, and a considerable sum of money was raised for a chapel. Mr. Mott died suddenly in September of this year, not seeing the completion of the building, which was well under way. The chapel was completed, and the first service was held in it by the Rev. Kelley on Sunday, December 30, 1883. Mr. Kelley remained in charge until the following October.

Then came evil days to the county and the mission. A series of dry years discouraged everybody, and the few Church people who remained in Merced became disheartened. For a time the chapel itself was abandoned to the ravages of the weather and roaming beasts.

It was in this condition when Bishop Nichols found it at the time he made his first visitation five years later. Immediately determining to rescue the mission and the chapel from its forlorn state, he asked Mr. Kelley, who had again become general missionary of the valley, to give it his first interest.

It was not easy to persuade the discouraged people to try again, but with the promise of construct and consistent help from Bishop Nichols, they were gradually won to helpfulfulness, and within eight months Sunday School, guild and regular parish work were going smoothly, the chapel had been refitted, and a fine confirmation class presented.

Mr. Kelley then turned his attention to other fields, and was followed in Merced by a number of men, the most of whom did not stay very long.

Hislop Sanford Comes

When Bishop Sanford came in 1911, he called the Rev. W. L. Greenwood to become vicar, and during his ministry the present vicarage, one of the most adequate and pleasant in the diocese was built.

In May, 1913, the Rev. W. H. Hawken became vicar. During his tenure the old chapel was moved to the rear of the church grounds, made over into a parish hall, and the present splendid church edifice erected, and beautified with many memorial gifts, secured by him. Gradually the debt was paid, and in the Spring of 1917, the mission celebrated the end of that work. With the conviction of the diocese as its guest, the Church was presented to Bishop Sanford, and consecrated.

Mr. Hawken continued the ministry of the mission four years longer, and then, at the request of Bishop Sanford, resigned to become archdeacon of the diocese, and was succeeded at Merced by the Rev. W. H. Pond. Four years ago the Rev. W. A. Cash became vicar, and is still in that office.

The chief difficulty under which the mission labors is the tendency of its people to move. Last year the mission had a strong Church school, but when Mr. Cash began his work this fall, he found that half the families who had been represented in the school had moved away.

There has come a change in the character of the county and city. Gradually the big ranches are being subdivided, and the city is improving in economic status, and in appearance. With this change has come a new hope for the work of St. Luke’s Mission, and it is the expectation of the executive council that the next five years will make a great change in its life.
worshipper to sing as long as the hymn lasts. It is also an original service of the rector to re­quest, in the interest of edification that the congregation keep still.

The custom of Evening Prayer should be rendered a fit subject for discussion. Public worship is necessarily formal. Being a group experience, it is not individual performance. Formulae must be provided in which all can take part. Hence we have an orderly se­quence of ejaculations, canticles, scripture readings and the like. It is to be supposed that these parts are delivered in a conversational tone or sung to a tune. It is always a desideratum for avoiding a formal service in a formal, not to say artificial, manner. Even the届 namely which is the more individualistic of Church's utterances, escapes with difficulty the "holy tone." In one sense, the custom is to be commended. Its singing the amens. It is not however say artificial.

The rural dean, assisted by Dean MacDon­ald, and in lieu of a sermon, Dean MacDon­ald, delivered the closing address. It was read by Mrs. San­ford and Dean MacDonald.

The Joint Session

At half past two the deanship and the Ser­vice League met together to listen to reports from the General Convention by Mrs. San­ford and Dean MacDonald.

Mrs. Sanford told us that the most interesting and definitely informing talk that we have heard on the women's part at the con­vention, was that of the twelfth service, the woman's auxiliary corporate communion and the offering of the United Thank Offering, which would mean if every school in the diocese did as well as they did? It would mean that we would have an Advent offering of not less than $1,020.00; just about three times as much as our last year's total.

and the mass meeting in the evening when the whole program was presented, and the amount of the offering announced, $1,101.49. So far as the published statements go, this amount was well received by the parishioners of all the churches providing the good of humanity in Porto Rico, than lying idle in local treasuries.

The condition of diocesan finance might well be described as salutary. For some members of the missionary staff have not yet received their last month's stipends in full. April 21, 1939

My dear Mr. Patrick:

I am writing at this time to call to your attention that there are unpaid assessments that stand in the way of your having full standing in the Fund. It would be very gratifying if this balance could now be paid, so that there will be no possibility of any pension that may be called for in your behalf being reduced.

The unpaid assessments are in the amount of $30.02, including interest, due for a period in 1938, from St. Paul's Church, Bakersfield.

Very sincerely yours,

Robert Worthington
Secretary

Reverend William E. Patrick
St. Paul's Church
Bakersfield, California
been Rural Dean of the San Joaquin Southern Deanery and chairman of different departments of the Executive Council. In 1936 he was chairman of the combined observance of Bishop Sanford's Twenty Fifth Anniversary and of the setting apart of San Joaquin as a separate jurisdiction. In 1931 he represented his District at the Denver General Convention and was again honored at the recent Thirtieth Annual Convocation of San Joaquin by election as deputy to the Kansas City Convention. He has been a delegate many times to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific.

The dean of the Bakerzfield clergy in point of service, the Reverend Mr. Patrick has been three times president of the Ministerial Association and is a past president of the Lions Club. A director of the original Community Welfare Fund, he is a director of the Red Cross Chapter, the Camp Fire Council and the Tuberculosis League and a member of the California Advisory Committee of the National Youth Administration.
In one of the fashionable weddings of the week is Miss Patricia Owen (left), who will become the bride of John Hawkins. She is seen here with her matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Barrett (right). The wedding will be a charming event of Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, at St. Paul's Episcopal church with the Reverend William E. Patrick, officiating. Two hundred guests will attend. A reception will follow at Hotel El Telon.

The bride has been honored at many smart parties, among which was a gift shower Saturday at the home of Mrs. Tod Mosler, 2324 Eighteenth street with Mrs. Barrett as co-hostess with Mrs. Mosler. Miss Owen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owen, prominent Maricopa residents. She is popular in West Side society circles as well as in Bakersfield.

Mrs. Tod Mosler and Mrs. George Barnett are entertaining at a 5 o'clock dinner on Saturday, for the bridal party at the Mosler home.
The Reverend William E. Patrick, who in March completes fifteen years as rector of St. Paul's Church, Bakersfield, California, is a native of Cambridge, Massachusetts, a graduate of Harvard and of the Episcopal Theological School. Ordained by Bishop William Lawrence of Massachusetts, he served first as curate of Grace Church, New Bedford. After two years overseas with the A. E. F., he became rector of St. Paul's Church, North Andover, Massachusetts, moving to the far West in 1922 to take charge of St. Paul's Church, Santa Paula, in the diocese of Los Angeles.

At the present time, the Reverend Mr. Patrick is president of San Joaquin Council of Advice; vice-president of the Executive Council; dean of the Camp Sierra Summer School; chairman of the Promotional Department; a member of the Cathedral Chapter and a member of the Provincial Council of the Eighth Province. In times gone by he has
St. Paul's Parish Sixty Years

The Protestant Episcopal Church in Bakersfield is the second of the non-Roman Catholic churches to be established, the first being the First Methodist Church.

Occasional services had been held prior to 1879 by the Reverend Messrs. W. H. Hill, A. Todhunter D. O. Kelley. The latter, indefatigable founder of San Joaquin Valley Churches, was appointed missionar-in-charge by the first Bishop of California, the Rt. Rev. Wm. Ingraham Kip, D. D. and in November 1879 organized St. Paul's Mission with D. G. McLean as warden. The Reverend Thomas A. Griffiths was the first clergyman to take up residence in Bakersfield as Archdeacon Kelley looked after such, contiguous places as Fresno, Modesto and Bakersfield, often travelling by buckboard.

When the third pastor, the Reverend H. Horace Clapham (1884–1892) was using what is now the Emerson School for services, Mrs. Alfred Harrell, then superintendent of the school and now the venerable publisher of the Bakersfield Californian for these forty years past and sometime vestryman of St. Paul's Church and Mrs. H. P. Bender, who as a young girl drove into Bakersfield from Greenfield to sing in the choir with the late Mrs. C. M. Chittenden as organist and still sixty years later an active communicant, were teaching in the school.

On the third visit of Bishop Kip to Bakersfield in 1886 the first St. Paul's Church was opened on the 17th Street site. In 1891 when Bishop Nichols consecrated the Church, the mission became a parish with Captain Carles E. Jewett and Dr. John Snook as wardens; C. Bickerdike, treasurer and Joseph V. Morley as clerk.

The Reverend Messrs. F. D. Miller, David Holmes, Hobart Chetwood and Edward Morgan served as rector in last decade of the gay nineties. In 1898 the Guild Hall still in serviceable use was built. Active in the Guild, which was largely instrumental in sponsoring the erection of a Guild Hall and Sunday School building, were Mrs. Alfred Harrell and Mrs. A. C. Maude, regular communicants today.

TAKES POST — The Reverend Ralph H. Cox of Porterville, new rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Bakersfield.

New Rector
Minister Takes Pulpit at St. Paul's

ST. PAUL'S Episcopal Church will have as its new rector succeeding the Reverend William E. Patrick, the Reverend Ralph H. Cox of Porterville, vicar of St. John's, Porterville, and St. James, Lindsay. He will assume his duties here Sunday, October 6.

The Reverend Mr. Patrick resigned to take the post of chaplain at Fort Lewis.

The new rector comes to Bakersfield with a fine record of achievement in past positions, and with an excellent background of religious training.

He was graduated from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific at Berkeley and had charge at St. Helena and Calistoga; was curate at St. John's in Stockton and vicar at Madera and Mendota for four years.

He is a member of the Elks and Lions Clubs and has shown a continuing interest in civic affairs.
A meeting of the diocesan league was held on January 30, with the following alternates chosen: Wykes, Frank Smith, Patrick, Lewis Robb, and Cathilda Switzer, alternates M. D. Gardett, Medesann Wakefield, J. T. A. Buster, Cooper and A. J. Wright. Benson Wrenn, president; Percy T. Neate, secretary.

The report of the parish treasurer, C. E. Wakefield, Jr., revealed the most satisfactory financial condition of the parish in recent years, with all obligations, local and diocesan, met in full, with a generous missionary contribution. Reports of parochial societies were made as follows: Church school, Miss M. D. Gardett, superintendent; altar guild, Mrs. C. E. Wakefield, Jr., president; St. Paul’s guild, Mrs. Leslies Robb, treasurer; St. Margaret’s guild, Miss Helen S. Plam; ‘secretary and Young People’s Fellowship, Miss Eleanor Patrick, secretary.

On motion of Dr. Fred J. Crease, senior warden, a message of greetings was sent to the Right Reverend L. C. Sanford, D.D., bishop of San Joaquin, convalescing from a long illness in Los Angeles. Votes of thanks were passed to Mrs. C. L. Herod for donations of flowers at Christmas and Easter; Walter E. Peterson, manager of the Bakersfield Building Materials Company, and W. A. Alexander and the Bakersfield Abstract Company, for donations in connection with repairs to the rectory last summer. St. Paul’s Guild, St. Margaret’s Guild and the Church School for contributions in 1926 to the members of the parish. The Reverend William E. Patrick spoke in appreciation of the work of the Altar Guild. Members of St. Paul’s Guild and Hostesses during the school term, which followed the business meeting.
San Joaquin Bishop Confirms Class at Church

"FAITH, hope and love are the great gifts of God" the Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D.D., bishop of San Joaquin told the large congregation that welcomed the bishop at St. Paul's Episcopal Church yesterday morning. "Those who exemplified these favors in their daily lives were answering St. Paul's prayer 'We beseech that ye receive not the grace of God in vain,' which the speaker quoted from the Epistle for the First Sunday in Lent. Those failing to support the missionary work of the church had received the grace of God in vain, the bishop concluded.

The following persons received the historic laying on hands in confirmation: Mesdames Carrie Macdonald, Ida Lea Johnson, Elizabeth S. Preston; the Misses Barbara Ann Conley, Audrey Forrest, Constance L. Macdonald, Elizabeth J. Moore, Sidney C. Moore, Marguerite E. Siddall and Burnice A. Steward; Messrs. Clarence D. Jones, Clarence A. Preston, George E. Preston, Jr., Vance Preston and Robert J. Smith. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector, officiated at the service of morning prayer and presented the candidates for confirmation, with W. W. Simons, Jr., crucifer, and Burton Covel as flag bearer. The choir under the direction of C. E. Wakefield, Jr., choirmaster, with Miss Gayle Adams, organist, sang the anthem, "Jerusalem" from Gounod's sacred cantata, "Galila."

Meetings and services at St. Paul's Church include the Wednesday morning celebration of holy communion at 10 o'clock; St. Paul's Guild, all day meeting, Wednesday; choir rehearsal Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and weekly children's lenten service Friday at 4 o'clock.

DEAR FRIENDS:

El Tejon Council Planning Dinner

El Tejon Council No. 215, Degree of Pocahontas, will sponsor a chicken dinner Sunday, March 5, in Druids hall. Mrs. Carrie Sanderson and her committee are in charge. The public is invited to attend from 3 to 7 o'clock. The council will meet for a business session Thursday evening at Eagles hall. Adoption of candidates is scheduled and refreshments will be served. The meeting will convene at 8 o'clock and a full attendance of members is requested.

As dramatic a story as any in history, that of Persia, will be told to members of the Bakersfield Woman's Club this evening by Lutar Hoobyar, globe trotter, lecturer, stage and screen actor and opera singer, who will also entertain with song. Mrs. George Blum, program chairman, said today that Mr. Hoobyar was chosen because of his wide appeal as a speaker to interest all age groups and both men and women.

Mr. Hoobyar has had a dramatic career, having been first befriended by Theodore Roosevelt. Coming to this country on a journey that began on a camel and ended on the modern magic carpet of the airplane. He crossed the Atlantic on the ill-fated Lusitania. He was winner of the national Juilliard scholarship for tenor voice.

He has been widely featured in motion pictures, opera, radio, concert and light opera.

Brothers, Al Jolson, Clark Gable, Greta Garbo, Lawrence Tibbett, Frederic March and others. He played the leading heavy tenor, Rudolph Lassarri in the Marx Brothers picture, "One Night at the Opera," with Allan Jones in the romantic lead. He was the operatic tenor in Al Jolson's last picture, "The Singing Kid." He sang Pagliacci in "The Great Ziegfeld." He was one of the pioneer soloists in radio, and in opera he has been leading tenor with the Hollywood Bowl Opera Company, the Los Angeles Civic Opera Company, the Metropolitan Opera Company and with the La Scala Opera Company.

In light opera he was leading tenor with the California Light Opera Company on tour and at the world fair at San Diego and with the Shuberts in New York and with companies in Canada, United States and Mexico.

Mrs. Keith S. McKee, will report at a meeting of the executive board to be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Clarence Cullimore, president, at 101 Oleander avenue.

The next season's budget will be discussed as well as the distribution of seats. The selection of next season's tickets by patrons will be discussed. The selection of next season's seats at time of payment is the wish of most of the season ticket holders, Mr. Cullimore said. Requests for ticket cards will be made at the Igor Gorin concert on March 16.

Plans for a reception for Igor Gorin following his concert here on March 16 will also be made at the forthcoming meeting. Mrs. Hugh Jewett heads the committee in charge.

List Committees for Circle Year

Mrs. Wyatt Drennan, newly elected president of Esther Circle of First Christian Church, conducted her first meeting recently with the new officers at the home of Mrs. A. L. Hutchison, 1711 Second street. The president appointed the following committees:

Ornaments Stolen From St. Andrew's Church by Vandal

(Special to The Californian)

TAYLOR, March 2—Police here are looking for a thief who stole stained glass windows from the altar of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church over the weekend.

Reverend Aubrey Bray, pastor, says the articles are practically without intrinsic value but are all memorial gifts.

Reverend Bray said his church was also robbed of $10 worth of brass candlesticks, which were removed by the thief.

The list of missing items includes a large, white, metal, cross, and a number of smaller articles, which were left in the church.

The thief also removed the brass candlesticks, which were kept at a church on the corner of Main and Market streets.

In addition, the church was also robbed of a number of other items, including a large, white, metal, cross, and a number of smaller articles, which were left in the church.

Sleep Sharpens Brain, New Suffragan Bishop Declares

Dr. Heron Advocate
Rest for Building Nerve Energy

The new Episcopal suffragan bishop of Massachusetts, whose consecration was approved by every church throughout the world, is a станкі who thinks people ought to have more sleep.

Consecrated in Trinity Church, the Rev. Heron Made Bishop of Lawrence today was described by his fellow clergy as a "man with a purpose." The consecration was attended by some 200 Episcopalians from throughout the state, including a number of the clergy from the diocese of Massachusetts.

The Rev. Heron Made Bishop of Lawrence, who was named Camp Heron, was consecrated by Bishop William Lawrence and Bishop Benjamin Tucker, the latter also being a minister at Trinity Church.

As for his consecration, Bishop Heron advised: "Sleep is a much more active thing than we think. More sleep builds physical and mental health, and makes the self-conscious person who must have confidence. The human mind, when it is awake, is sometimes capable of sallies of intellect. But then we think that sleep improves the intellectual life. The mind is, however, like a muscle, and needs rest to do its work."

Ministerial Union of St. Paul's Episcopal Church

THANKFULNESS was the theme for the day, to be preached by the Reverend Grover Ralston, Rector of the union Maundy Thursday service held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church last evening under the auspices of the Bakersfield Ministerial Association.

The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Church, officiated at the celebration of the holy communion. Other ministers attending the service were the Reverend Measure, Burton Barrett, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church; John Murdoch, First Presbyterian Church; Leonard Birkin, Brethren Church; and Captain Andy Telfer of the Salvation Army.

In giving out his notice, the Reverend Mr. Patrick said that he had been asked by the Parent-Teacher Association to bring before the Ministerial Association and the church members generally the importance of enacting public sentiment in favor of concrete action on the part of the responsible authorities to take immediate steps to provide more sanitary conditions for the people who now occupy the "jungles" of Bakersfield, and vicinity.

St. Paul's choir under the direction of C. E. Wakefield, Jr., director of the St. Paul's Guild, all organist, conducted the service, with special music by the St. Paul's choir master.

The annual interdenominational "three hour service" was held at the First Congregational Church this afternoon with the following ministers participating, the Reverend Measure, Captain Andy Telfer, Grover Ralston, Burton C. Barrett and A. S. Downs.

The ministerial association is sponsoring a sunrise service at Green Valley this morning, at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, with the Rev. Leonard Birkin of the Brethren Church, and the Reverend John Murdoch of the First Presbyterian Church, in charge.

Paul's Guild Planning for Sale

Paul's Guild will hold a cooked dinner in the Guild hall, Seventh and 11 streets, at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. E. W. Patrick is in charge.

Preparation for the Easter Spring Festival, the St. Paul's choir will rehearse in the church this evening at 6 o'clock.

The Choir of the Altar Guild and Organist's Guild will meet at 11 tomorrow afternoon to decorate the church for Easter. Pastel-dyed flowers are asked to please be sent to the church, not later than 6 o'clock.

Easter day services as follows: 8 a.m., holy communion; 10 a.m., festival service; 11 a.m., Holy Eucharist, subject: "Everlasting Life" (Brown); No meeting of Young People's Fellowship: no meeting of Young People's Fellowship.
Consecrate Dr. Heron As Bishop

With impressive ceremony, and with bishops from far sections of the nation participating, the Rev. Raymond Adams Heron was consecrated today at Trinity Church as suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts.

The services, at 10 a.m., participated in by the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church and also bishop of Virginia, were preceded by a procession made up of several hundred dignitaries.

They included leaders in the Episcopal, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist Episcopal, Unitarian, Presbyterian and Universalist churches.

Also in the procession were the members of Bishop Heron’s theological school class of 1916, who walked in a body.

Eight bishops, including Bishop Tucker, took part in the colorful and impressive rites at old Trinity, in Copley square.

The others were Bishop Arthur Wheelock Moulton, bishop of Utah; Bishop William Lawrence, bishop of Massachusetts; Bishop W. Appleton Lawrence, bishop of Western Massachusetts; Bishop Benjamin Brewster, bishop of Maine; Bishop Henry Knox Sherill, bishop of Massachusetts; Bishop Samuel Gavitt Babcock, who resigned January 1 as suffragan bishop and whom Bishop Heron succeeds; Bishop Vedder Van Dyck, bishop of Vermont.

Bishop Tucker was presiding.

—HUMANIZE WAR—
Hymn 172

1. Jesus Christ is risen today,
   Our triumphant holy day,
   Who did once upon the cross,
   Suffer to redeem our loss.
   Alleluia!

2. Hymns of praise then let us sing
   Unto Christ, the heavenly King,
   Who endured the cross and grave;
   Sinners to redeem and save.
   Alleluia!

3. But the pains which He endured,
   Our salvation have procured;
   Now above the sky He's King,
   Where the angels ever sing.
   Alleluia!

4. Sing we to our God above
   Praise eternal as His love;
   Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
   Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
   Alleluia!

   Amen.

   BENEDICTION

Recessional Hymn 170 “Come Ye Faithful, Raise the Strain”

1. Come, ye faithful, raise the strain
   Of triumphant gladness;
   God hath brought His Israel
   Into joy from sadness;
   Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
   Jacob's sons and daughters;
   Led them with unmoistened foot
   Through the Red Sea waters.

2. 'Tis the spring of souls today;
   Christ hath burst His prison,
   And from three days' sleep in death
   As a sun hath risen;
   All the winter of our sins,
   Long and dark, is flying
   From His light, to whom we give Laud and praise undying.

3. Now the queen of seasons bright
   With the day of splendour,
   With the royal feast of feasts,
   Comes its joy to render;
   Comes to glad Jerusalem,
   Who with true affection
   Welcomes in unwearied strains
   Jesus resurrection.

4. Neither might the gates of death,
   Nor the tomb's dark portal,
   Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
   Hold Thee as a mortal;
   But today amidst Thine own
   Thou didst stand bestowing
   That Thy peace which evermore

Exit Commandery

During this hymn the Sir Knights and those desiring to retire will march out, the Commandery leading. At the conclusion of the hymn, the rector will take up the Office of Holy Communion, page 74 in the Prayer Book. All are cordially invited to stay and participate in the Lord's Supper. Sir Knights desiring to remain for the Communion Service are requested to step back into Church quietly in order not to break ranks in the Church.
CAPTAIN GENERAL: Sir Knights, Attention!

PRELATE: Hear the faith of the Gospel and defend it with your lives.

SIR KNIGHTS: Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

PRELATE: Hear the words of our Saviour Christ: This is life eternal that they might know Thee, the only true God and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent.

SIR KNIGHTS: Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

PRELATE: Hear the confession of Saint Peter: We believe and are sure that Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

SIR KNIGHTS: Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

PRELATE: Hear also what Saint John saith: This is the commandment of God, that we should believe on the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another.

SIR KNIGHTS: Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

PRELATE: Hear also what Saint Paul saith: If Thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

SIR KNIGHTS: Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God.

PRELATE: Christ is risen.

SIR KNIGHTS: The Lord is risen indeed.

Then shall the Minister lead, the Sir Knights and Congregation joining, in the recitation of the Apostles Creed and responses following on pages 15, 16, 17 in the service of Morning Prayer, in the Prayer Book.
THE EASTER PSALM
All Standing

PRELATE: The earth is the Lord's and all that therein is; The compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

SIR KNIGHTS: For he hath founded it upon the seas, And established it upon the floods.

PRELATE: Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall rise up in His holy place?

SIR KNIGHTS: Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart; and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbor.

PRELATE: He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

SIR KNIGHTS: This is the generation of them that seek him; Even of them that seek Thy face, O God of Jacob.

PRELATE: Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

SIR KNIGHTS: Who is this King of glory? It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

PRELATE: Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

SIR KNIGHTS: Who is this King of glory? Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Processional Hymn No. 530
(Congregation Standing While Knights Templar Enter)

1. Onward, Christian Soldiers, Marching as to war,
   With the Cross of Jesus Going on before.
   Christ, the Royal Master, Leads against the foe;
   Forward into battle See, His banners go.
   Chorus

2. At the sign of triumph Satan's host doth flee;
   On, then, Christian Soldiers, On to victory!
   Hell's foundations quiver At the shout of praise;
   Brothers, lift your voices. Loud your anthems raise.
   Chorus

   CHORUS
   Onward, Christian Soldiers
   Marching as to war,
   With the Cross of Jesus
   Going on before.

3. Like a mighty army Moves the Church of God;
   Brothers, we are treading Where the saints have trod;
   We are not divided, All one Body we.
   One in hope and doctrine, One in charity.
   Chorus

4. Crowns and thrones may perish, Kingdoms rise and wane,
   But the Church of Jesus Constant will remain;
   Gates of hell can never 'Gainst that Church prevail
   We have Christ's own promise; And that cannot fail.
   Chorus

5. Onward, then, ye people,
   Join our happy throng;
   Blend with us your voices In the triumph song.
   Glory, laud and honor Unto Christ, the King.
   This through countless ages Men and angels sing.
   Chorus Amen.
PRELATE: I know that my Redeemer liveth.
SIR KNIGHTS: And that He shall stand at last upon the earth.
PRELATE: And after my skin hath been destroyed.
SIR KNIGHTS: Yet without the flesh shall I see God.
PRELATE: Christ is risen from the dead.
SIR KNIGHTS: And become the first fruits of them that slept.
PRELATE: For since by man came death.
SIR KNIGHTS: By man came also the resurrection of the dead.
PRELATE: For as in Adam all die.
SIR KNIGHTS: Even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
PRELATE: Blessings and honor and glory and power be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne.
SIR KNIGHTS: And unto the Lamb forever and forever.

Then Shall the Minister Say:

Dearly beloved Sir Knights and brethren: The Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God, our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by His infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought, at all times, humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we chiefly so to do when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at His hands, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore, I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying—

GENERAL CONFESSIOIN
To Be Said by All Present While Standing

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father. We have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep; we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou, those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life. To the glory of Thy holy Name. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

OUR FATHER, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

PRELATE: O Lord, open Thou our lips.
SIR KNIGHTS: And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.
PRELATE: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
SIR KNIGHTS: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

PRELATE: Praise ye the Lord.
SIR KNIGHTS: The Lord’s name be praised.

The Reverend William E. Packard's Memorial Service, held at 11:00 a.m. at the Elks Glee Club, was a touching tribute to a beloved figure. The service was attended by many, including the Reverend William E. Packard's family, friends, and fellow church members.

The service began with a reading from the Bible, followed by a prayer led by Mrs. Laura E. Nichols. A special musical selection was performed by the combined choir of St. Paul's Elks Glee Club and the American Legion Auxiliary Glee Club, directed by Mr. W. E. Packard. The service concluded with a memorable address by Mrs. Laura E. Nichols, who spoke fondly of her husband and his contributions to both the church and the community.

The service was a poignant reminder of the life and legacy of the Reverend William E. Packard, who will be remembered for his dedication to the community and his unwavering commitment to his faith.

A. A. R. Quinn, Memorial Day guest speaker, in El Tejon Hotel at 6:15 o'clock tomorrow evening, followed by Sunday evening services at 7:45 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will open observance of Memorial Day in Bakersfield by all patriotic organizations of the city. On Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock services will open at Union cemetery.

Native of Kern

The joint committee headed by John F. Watts of the American Legion has arranged the tomorrow evening dinner. Mr. Quinn, chairman of the state veterans' welfare board, is a charter member of Frank S. Reynolds post of the Legion and was first commander of Merle Reed post of Delano. A native of Kern county, he was both state and national commander of the American Legion.

He was the first chairman of the veterans' board, resigning to enter the business of Los Angeles, where he became chairman of the Board of Supervisors. A year ago he was reappointed to the veterans' board as chairman of the committee and asked the veterans be made with him of the Union hall. Members of all patriotic organizations.

Chuir. Service

W. E. Packard's Memorial Service, held at 11 a.m. at the Elks Glee Club, was a touching tribute to a beloved figure. The service was attended by many, including the Reverend William E. Packard's family, friends, and fellow church members.

The service began with a reading from the Bible, followed by a prayer led by Mrs. Laura E. Nichols. A special musical selection was performed by the combined choir of St. Paul's Elks Glee Club and the American Legion Auxiliary Glee Club, directed by Mr. W. E. Packard. The service concluded with a memorable address by Mrs. Laura E. Nichols, who spoke fondly of her husband and his contributions to both the church and the community.

The service was a poignant reminder of the life and legacy of the Reverend William E. Packard, who will be remembered for his dedication to the community and his unwavering commitment to his faith.

Man Shoots Officer After Conviction as Drunk

The Rev. Brother Louis, C. F. X., who celebrates his silver anniversary of the School at Danvers, was shot tonight in the heart of the business section by a man he had arrested earlier in the day, after he tried in vain to be friends.

The man, police announced, was Harry B. Hall, 60, a former cattle dealer. Eight hours before police arrested him with a smoking round over to a local policeman, Hall had been forced guilty of a drunkenness charge in court and ordered to pay $7.70 costs.

AT BUSY CORNER

Two blocks to the east and about 1,000 feet in the touch of the business section, a man was found dead, police said. He lay dead on the sidewalk, and police said he was arrested.

HATCH

The only explanation police could offer for the shooting tonight was that Hall was trying to piece the shooting together to tonight and was arrested by the court.

RLENDEY

Hair B. Hall, police announced, is dead, the bullet having struck him above the right eye.

SHOOTS

The policeman, John D. Chapman, of the police force, was shot and killed.

FATHER HUGS WIFE

Dr. J. J. Wright, who has a jury which had convicted his wife and John Kimmell, son of insanity. He had been charged with the murder of Mrs. Wright and John Kimmel.

WRIGHT COLLAPSES

"I appeal to the court that the fact that the medical services of the court has been given to you."

With Murder

Wright was served with a summons to appear in the courtroom at the police force, it was stated, he was killed.

Announcement of St. Paul's Events

The service scheduled for 11 a.m. on Sunday St. Paul's Episcopal Church Sunday will be omitted, because of the baccalaureate service at the high school auditorium at which the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Church, will be the preacher. Members of the congregation are asked to attend either the early communion at 8 o'clock next Sunday or the Sunday school service at 9:45 o'clock. There will be no further choir rehersals until September.

The Reverend and Mrs. William E. Patrick motored to Fresno yesterday where the local pastor assisted the Very Reverend James M. Malloch and the Right Reverend Louis C. Sanford, D. D. at a celebration of holy communion in St. James' Cathedral, Fresno, preceding the meeting of the executive board of the diocesan church service league.

The Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, bishop of San Joaquin diocese, and the Reverend William E. Patrick, seated before the confirmation class yesterday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

"FAITH, hope and love are the great gifts of God" the Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D.D., bishop of San Joaquin told the large congregation that welcomed the bishop at St. Paul's Episcopal Church yesterday morning. "Those who exemplified these favors in their daily lives were answering St. Paul's prayer 'We beseech that ye receive not the grace of God in vain,' which the speaker quoted from the Epistle for the First Sunday in Lent. Those failing to support the missionary work of the church had received the grace of God in vain, the bishop concluded.

The following persons received the historic laying on hands in confirmation: Mesdames Carrie Macdonald, Ida Lea Johnson, Elizabeth S. Preston; the Misses Barbara Ann Conley, Audrey Forrest, Constance L. Macdonald, Elizabeth J. Moore, Sidney C. Moore, Marguerite E. Siddall and Burnice A. Steward; Messrs. Clarence D. Jones, Clarence A. Preston, George E. Preston, Jr., Vance Preston and Robert J. Smith. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector, officiated at the service of morning prayer and presented the candidates for confirmation, with W. W. Simons, Jr., crucifer, and Burton Covel as flag bearer. The choir under the direction of C. E. Wakefield, Jr., choirmaster, with Miss Gayle Adams, organist, sang the anthem, "Jerusalem" from Gounod's sacred cantata, "Gallia."

Meetings and services at St. Paul's Church include the Wednesday morning celebration of holy communion at 10 o'clock; St. Paul's Guild, all day meeting, Wednesday; choir rehearsal Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and weekly children's lenten service Friday at 4 o'clock.

You will note the pledge card is a duplex one. Please fill in on the left side what you desire to contribute by the week, month, or quarter to indicate your support of the parish; and on the right side what you desire to give to the cause of missions. A convenient ratio is four to one; for example, $1.00 for parish support and 25¢ to missions.

On behalf of the vestry the committee wishes to thank you for your support in the past and hopes that you will give a ready and willing response for the new year.

Please mail card to Mr. Wakefield before November 20, or place on offering plate at some service.

GEORGE HATFIELD
WILL BE SPEAKER

Lieutenant Governor Slated to Speak Armistice Day at Memorial Rites

Member of an old California family and a graduate of Stanford University, Lieutenant Governor George J. Hatfield, who will be the Armistice Day speaker here Wednesday, is an attorney who has had a distinguished career, according to Z. V. Hoskins. The memorial exercises in Fox theater are set for 11 a.m. immediately following the parade. Mr. Hoskins, general chairman of the American Legion committee preparing the Armistice observance, has been a friend of Mr. Hatfield for a quarter of a century.

Wins Law Degree

He was educated in the public schools in Nevada, Placer and Alameda counties. He was graduated from Oakland High School in 1908 and from Stanford in 1911, taking a master of arts degree in political science in 1912 and his law degree in 1913.

After successful private practice, Mr. Hatfield was for seven and a half years United States attorney for the northern district of California under the administration of President Coolidge and President Hoover. He is a former member of the California veteran's welfare board and was elected lieutenant governor of the state in 1934.

Ranch Owner

In addition to his legal experience he is the owner of a large ranch in San Joaquin county and is an expert horseman. He will ride in the parade Wednesday as an honorary member of the Kern County Rangers.

In fraternal affairs the lieutenant governor is a past state potentate of the Shriners and past dictator of San Francisco Lodge No. 26, Loyal Order of Moose. He has also been a member of the national executive committee of the American Legion.

In honor of the distinguished visitor a public dinner is being sponsored by Frank S. Reynolds Post and Auxiliary, American Legion, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night in Hotel Tejon. Reservations will be taken until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Bakersfield Chamber of Commerce office in Pudro hotel, telephone 6242.

To Arrive Tuesday

L. E. Chernowith, superintendent of city schools, will preside as toastmaster, and the Reverend William E. Patrick will deliver the invocation. The Kern County Rangers today were urged by Captain Leone Davis to attend. Mr. Hatfield being an honorary member. He is due to arrive on the United Airways plane tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Wayne Nelson, Mrs. Howard Nichols, Mrs. Z. V. Hoskins and Mrs. Ray Carlyle will be the hostess committee for the Legion Auxiliary.

The Reverend William E. Patrick will address the Cingman Club at luncheon tomorrow in El Tejon hotel. Armistice Day being his topic, Charles Hafer will report on arrangement for the St. Paul's Church, Bakersfield, November 27-29. It was announced last evening by Earle Brown, president of the Young People's Fellowship, who appointed the committee. The group to take charge include: Housing, Reba Neate, William Purdige, Connie Aldrich, Lloyd A. Patrick; registration, Bill Purdige, Marjorie Jean Stanford, Virginia Snow, Edna Little; music, Connie Aldrich, Edna Little; social evening, Eleanor Patrick, Reba Neate, Bill Purdige; menu, Mrs. Curtis Wardhaugh, Laura MacDonald.

After finishing the business meeting Tuesday morning, the members worked on the stickers for the altar offering bazaar brought by Miss M. D. Garrett, superintendent of the Sunday school. Miss Audrey Bottrell, who is moving to Los Angeles this week, received a parting gift from the group.

UNION SERVICES ANNOUNCED HERE

Week of Special Worship Is Planned at Protestant Churches of City

In line with the nation-wide preaching missions being held in different parts of the country during this month, the Bakersfield Ministerial Association, headed by the Reverend William E. Patrick, president, will sponsor a local preaching mission beginning next Sunday when each minister will be responsible for the services in his church and then from Monday through Thanksgiving day will follow a program of union services.

The schedule will be as follows:

Monday, November 23, at 7:30 o'clock at the First Christian Church, preacher, the Reverend A. S. Donat; Tuesday, November 24, at the First Presbyterian Church, the Reverend A. T. Doughart; Wednesday, November 25, at 7:30 p. m. at Trinity Methodist Church, preacher, the Reverend B. C. Barrett; Thursday, November 26, at 7:30 o'clock at the First Congregational Church, preacher, the Reverend C. H. Holme. The public is cordially invited. The committee of arrangements consists of the Reverend Messers. Grover Ralph, B. C. Barrett, E. B. Cole and John Mundock.

Missionary District Unit to Convene Here; Pick Committees

Episcopal young people's organization of the missionary district of San Joaquin will meet at St. Paul's Church, Bakersfield, November 27-29. It was announced last evening by Earl Sorensen, president of the Young People's Fellowship, who appointed the committee. The group to take charge include: Housing, Reba Neate, William Purdige, Connie Aldrich, Lloyd A. Patrick; registration, Bill Purdige, Marjorie Jean Stanford, Virginia Snow, Edna Little, music, Connie Aldrich, Edna Little; social evening, Eleanor Patrick, Reba Neate, Bill Purdige; menu, Mrs. Curtis Wardhaugh, Laura MacDonald.

Special Armistice Services at Church Draw Throng of 500 Persons

"To honor the dead who made the supreme sacrifice, to affirm a new duty to the disabled and to devote our efforts to build a firmer structure for the safeguarding of peace—these are the obligations upon all Americans," was the statement of the Reverend William E. Patrick, past national chaplain of the American Legion, addressing a crowd of approximately 500 persons at a special Armistice Sunday service at the First Baptist church last evening.

The speaker went on to outline three ways in which America can continue the peace which she has enjoyed the past 18 years.

Peace Program

"An adequate national defense, strict neutrality on the economic front as well as the military; in case of other nations' quarrels and congressional legislation for the drafting of capital, industry and man power on the basis of equality with special privilege and guilt for some in the event (which God forbid) of our participations in another armed conflict," he said, "should be the major issues in our peace program."

Members of the Bakersfield post the American Legion and of the trenches of foreign wars together with the auxiliaries attended the service.

Churches Combine

Reverend Burton C. Barrett, president of the union services, conducted the service, and the First Baptist, First Presbyterian, First Methodist, and United Church of the First Baptist, First Presbyterian, and Salvation Army attended. Captain Andrew Teller delivered the invocation, the Reverend A. T. Doughart read the scripture lesson and Reverend John Murdoch of the church, the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Edna Scott, and Mr. Clark, organist, sang "The Day Is Done" for the装配式 and "Land of Hope and Glory.

The convention began with a buffet supper for visiting delegates, with Mrs. William E. Patrick, hostess, at St. Paul's rectory, 217 1/2 street. A get-acquainted meeting followed in the guild hall at which games were played and an entertainment furnished by Marie Roberts Studio.

The business session was held Saturday morning at church, Carl Sabach of Fresno presiding. Greeting were read from the Right Reverend L. O. Robb, D. D., bishop of San Joaquin, unable to attend because of illness at Los Angeles. Reports were made by the several parish churches.

New Staff

Officers chosen for the new year were as follows: John O. Hoskins, Jr., Stockton, president, succeeding Carl Sabach; Earl Snow, Bakersfield, vice-president; succeeding Miss Eleanor Patrick, Bakersfield; Miss Lucy Hawley; Stockton, secretary, succeeding Miss Margaret Cox, Fresno, and Alex Barson, Rodley, treasurer, succeeding Miss Rebecca Hawley, Stockton. At a short impressive service in the church Saturday evening, the new officers were installed by the Reverend William E. Patrick. The evening was concluded with a party in the guild hall with music furnished by Stutuman's orchestra.

Luncheon Saturday was sponsored by St. Paul's Guild, with Mrs. C. E. Wakefield, Jr. as chairman; dinner Saturday by St. Margaret's Guild with Miss Helen S. Plenum, chairman, and the Sunday morning breakfast following the church conference was served by St. Paul's Young People's Guild with Mrs. Curtis Ward, chairman.

Out-of-town visitors included the following persons: St. Andrew's Church, Taft, Miss Ruby Ross and Tom Ross, Mariposa; the Reverend Anthony O. Bryant, from St. John's Church, Stockton; Harvey Robert, president of the Provincial Y. P. C.; Misses Bessie Chadwick, Maxine Davenport, Betty Howley, Becky Howley, Miss Florence Knowland; Bob Hamilton, Major J. W. Hoskins, Sr.; John O. Hoskins, Jr.; Ullman Hoskins, Francis Jenkins, Wesley Moore, and Edgar Robinson; St. James' Cathedral, Fresno, Miss Margaret Cox, Carl Sabach, Richard Waller; Church of the Good Shepherd, Rodley; Alex Barson; Robert Leedal; Russell Murphy, Miss Anna Casey and Shirley Augustine; Los Angeles, the Reverend John A. THE NARROW GAUGE

The action of Winthrop town meeting members in accepting the report of a Massachusetts Institute of Technology expert to guarantee the retention of service on the Narrow Gauge undoubtedly reflects the sentiment of the town as a whole. An advance in fare from 10 to 15 cents and the curtailment of service between rush hours in another day would be far from popular.

Declining revenues today seriously threaten this most necessary transportation system. Winthrop residents generally appear willing to do their part to retain it.

BISHOP HERON

The consecration of the Rev. Raymond Adams Heron as suffragan bishop of the Massachusetts diocese advanced one of the State's most brilliant churchmen to a position of honor and authority that was well earned. The sacred services which took place yesterday were attended by men and women of many different sects. As they saw the vestments of his office bestowed on Bishop Heron at Trinity the noisy world outside the edifice teemed with grating problems of a troubled civilization. To the new bishop will go the work of easing and assuaging the manifold troubles those problems have brought. Bishop Heron, sturdy, far-seeing and understanding, is well equipped for the office he takes.

CONSECRATED AT SOLEMN SERVICE

Mother Witnesses the Ceremonies With Tears in Eyes

With all the beauty and solemnity of the ritual of the Protestant Episcopal Church the Rev. Raymond Adams Heron, arch-deacon of Boston and previously for 12 years, rector of Grace Church at Lawrence, was consecrated yesterday as suffragan bishop of the diocese of Massachusetts at Trinity Church in Copley square.

REV. PATRICK IS ACCORDERED HONOR

A New York chaplain was accorded an incredible honor recently when he was presented with the highest award in the military service, the Medal of Honor. This honor is given to those who have demonstrated exceptional valor and heroic service.

The award was presented to Lieutenant John P. McCreery, who served in the Korean War. He was recognized for his courage and dedication during the conflict.

On hand to present the award was a representative from the American Legion, which is responsible for awarding the Medal of Honor.

This significant event took place in Washington, D.C., the nation's capital, where the ceremony was held.

EPISCOPAL PASTOR RE-ELECTED CHIEF

Serves Diocese as President of Council of Advice.

The Rev. Patrick J. Flaherty, B.A., M.A., has been re-elected as President of the Episcopal Diocese of New York. He is the first person to serve in this position for two consecutive terms.

The election took place during the diocesan convention, where Flaherty was endorsed by a majority of the delegates.

Flaherty, who has served as a priest for over 30 years, was previously the rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in New York City.

CLASS TO BEGIN: BISHOP TO VISIT

Rev. Patrick J. Flaherty announced that he will be visiting his parishes in the coming weeks to begin the new class.

The bishop indicated that he is looking forward to meeting with the parishes and hearing their concerns and needs.

Other news from the diocese includes the appointment of a new rector for St. Mark's Church, which will take place in the near future.

The diocese is currently working on various projects, including the expansion of its facilities and the establishment of new programs to serve the community.
The Right Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, has announced that Bishop Remington will visit St. Paul’s on the afternoon of Saturday, March 14, to preside at the celebration of the rite of confirmation for a group of persons.

Thomas F. L. Remington, D. D., Bishop of San Joaquin, who will visit St. Paul’s Sunday evening of March 15, will hold a service of confirmation to be held at 3:45 o'clock in the church.

Motion Pictures Enjoyed by Guild

"Hearns in the Orient," a motion picture, was shown by Miss Elizabeth Stair, held at the community center. The program was followed by a discussion.

Ministerial Union Service at St. Paul's Is Impressive

THANKFULNESS was the theme of the discourse preached by the Reverend Grover Wakefield at the union Maundy Thursday service held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church last evening under the auspices of the Bakersfield Ministerial Association. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Church, eulogized at the celebration of the holy communion. Other ministers attending the service were the Reverend William B. Cooper, pastor of the First Baptist Church; John Murdoch, First Presbyterian Church, Leonard Riehle, Brethren Church and Captain Andy Teiler of the Salvation Army.

In giving out his notions, the Reverend Mr. Patrick said that he had been asked by the Parent-Teacher Association to bring before the Ministerial Association and the church members generally the importance of existing public sentiment in favor of concrete action on the part of the responsible authorities to take immediate steps to provide more sanitary conditions for the people who now occupy the "jingles" of Bakersfield and vicinity.

For Children

The service at 9:30 o'clock will be for the children of the Sunday school. Miss Maryln Tuttle will act as organist for the Easter canticles, which will include one number by the primary department. The children are asked to bring their lenten mite boxes and flowers for the Easter cross. The Reverend William E. Patrick will present the Easter ribbons for Lenten service attendance.

For the 11 o'clock service, the main service of Easter day, the following order of service has been arranged:

Plan Dog-Race Camouflage

The Reverend Burton C. Barrett, D.D, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was elected president of the Bakertield Ministerial Association this morning at the first regular meeting of the association held this fall at the First Presbyterian Church, succeeding the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, who retires after two terms of service. The Reverend Grover B. Balch of First Methodist Church was named secretary and the Reverend E. J. Evans, secretary, succeeded the Reverend J. A. Wood, who retired after five years service as secretary. A vote of thanks was voted the retiring officers.

The following resolution was passed:

Whereas, It has come to the attention of the Ministerial Association that a movement is on foot to promote a recreational area east of Finnish avenue, and

Whereas, The Ministerial Association is in no way opposed to good, clean sport, but

Whereas, Members of the Parent-Teachers Association are convinced that this scheme is a menace to law and order and to the well being of the community, and

Whereas, The experience of other communities in California with dog racing has shown that gambling features have been very unfavorable, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Bakertield Ministerial Association is unalterably opposed to the granting of a license to any promoters of the proposed recreational area.

The secretary was requested to send copies of this resolution to The Bakertield Californian, the board of supervisors, the sheriff, district attorney, and the Parent-Teachers Association.

The annual Thanksgiving services to be held under the auspices of the association were arranged, with the Reverend A. S. Donat to preach at Trinity Methodist Church, giving due, for the East Side, and the Reverend E. J. Evans to preach at the First Presbyterian Church on Thanksgiving day morning.

Reverend William E. Patrick, Rector
Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity, services at 10 a.m. Holy Communion, 9 a.m. church school; 6:45 p.m.; catechumenal; 11 a.m., morning by the rector; Young people's fellowship, 7 p.m. Wednesdays, all at 7:30.
Dear Friend:

The undersigned have been appointed a Finance Committee by the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, to arrange for the annual canvass for subscribers to the maintenance of St. Paul's Church, and to our share in the General Missionary Work of the whole church for the ensuing year.

In order that you may understand the parish needs the Vestry has adopted a tentative budget of approximately $5000. It is necessary for this amount to be raised if we are to carry on successfully for the year 1939. In addition to this, we will need approximately $700 for the general Church Program, which is taken care of by the pledge on the red side of the envelope.

You will note that the Pledge Card is a duplex one. Please fill in on the left side what you desire to contribute by the week, month or quarter -- to indicate your support of the Parish; and on the right side, what you desire to give to the cause of Missions. A convenient ratio is - four to one. For example:

$1.00 for Parish support and
25¢ to Missions

On behalf of the vestry the Committee wishes to thank you for your support in the past and hopes you will give a ready and willing response for the New Year.

Please fill out your card and place on the Offering Plate at some service, or mail to Mr. Wakefield -- before November 10th.

Sincerely yours,

G. E. Stanfield, Chairman
C. E. Wakefield, Jr.

The women of the service league will hold their business meeting in the California rest room, with Mrs. William E. Patrick, vice-president of the Diocesan Service League, presiding. Luncheon will be served in the Guild hall. Visitors will attend from the Tulare and Kern county Episcopal churches to hear reports on the Cincinnati convention.

PEACE IS THEME OF RECTOR HERE

Visiting Church Leader Is Heard in Fine Address at Deanery Meeting

"Peace within the churches would be a great step toward universal peace," said the Reverend Robert Snyder, rector of the Church of the Saviour, Hanford, preaching at the quarterly meeting of the Southern Deanery held at St. Paul's Guild hall this morning. The Reverend A. O. Bray, TFC, rural dean, celebrated the holy communion. Mrs. Clyde Campbell of Taft played the hymns.

Dean Bray presided at the business session held in the church study; parochial reports were presented. Mrs. William E. Patrick, vice-president of the Diocesan Service League, presided at the women's business meeting held in the women's rest room.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock by members of St. Paul's Guild in the guild hall. Mrs. C. E. Wykes presided.

The afternoon session was held jointly to hear reports on a recent general convention and women's auxiliary meeting in Cincinnati, given by the Reverend A. L. Walters, Reedley, and Mrs. W. G. Crigge, Fresno.

ARMISTICE SPEAKER

Man of Many Decorations to Speak Here November

FORMER commandant of the Ninth corps area and the Fourth field army, Major Paul B. Malone, Armistice day speaker here who is widely known as a public speaker, had a distinguished record of service in France during the World War, receiving many decorations for bravery.

The distinguished service cross was awarded him in 1921 for extraordinary heroics in the battle of Soissons in July, 1918. He also won the distinguished service medal in 1918 for exceptionally meritorious services in France; four silver stars citations for gallantry in action: the Croix de Guerre of France with two palms and one star; and has been named an officer of the Legion of Honor of France and a commander of the Crown of Italy. He holds the victory and other American campaign medals for service in battle.

Leaving for France as lieutenant-colonel in July, 1917, General Malone served with the operations section, GHQ; was promoted to colonel and became chief of the training section on the general staff; and in February, 1918, was assigned to command the Twenty-third U. S. Infantry, second division, and commanded his regiment in the trenches south of Verdun; in the Aisne-Marne offensive, in the Meuse-Argonne offensive, and in the Meuse river and capturings the high ground to the east. In October he was made brigadier general temporarily, an appointment made permanent in 1922, and commanded the Tenth brigade after the Armistice in Luxembourg, and later the Third brigade on the Rhine.

By coincidence, the Reverend William E. Patrick, who will introduce General Malone on Armistice day, was chaplain of the regiment which he commanded in France. The Reverend Patrick, past national chaplain of the American Legion, also won the distinguished service cross.

Brigade Commander

General Malone in August, 1918, was assigned to command the Tenth brigade of the Fifth division, leading it in the St. Mihiel offensive and Meuse-Argonne offensive, and in forcing the Meuse river and capturing the high ground to the east. In October he was made brigadier general temporarily, an appointment made permanent in 1922, and commanded the Tenth brigade after the Armistice in Luxembourg, and later the Third brigade on the Rhine.

The speaker is a member of the Rotary Club, San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the Baltimore Association of Commerce, the Elks, Pacific Union Club of San Francisco, the Army and Navy Club of San Francisco and the American Legion. He is well known as a public speaker on many subjects, such as insurance, transportation, unemployment, community welfare, art, music and religions, according to Z. V. Hoskins, Legion chairman in charge of Armistice day preparations.
Services Schedules on Armistice Day

On opening the meetings of St. Paul's and St. Margaret's Guilds yesterday the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Church, held a special form of service appropriate to Armistice Day, "A Lit for Our Country," prepared by the national executive board of the Woman's Auxiliary and being used at the request of the executive board of St. Margaret's Guild. The meeting was held at 8 o'clock in the Guild hall. A new committee of the St. Paul's Guild, appointed by the rector, will be in charge of the service.

Mechanical Skit Is Given Before Club

A long-distance telephone procedure was dramatized for members of the Drama Club yesterday in a telephone booth at Traveller's Hotel by J. E. T. Withers, manager of the telephone office, and George Shailer, president. The incident, which was described in a telephone call from a small town, was a success and was given to thecredit of the Drama Club.

Marching feet and martial music echoed the stirring days of 1918 today as Bakersfield celebrated the twentieth anniversary of the signing of the armistice, marking 24 years of uninterupted peace for the United States. Before thousands of patriotic citizens who lined the downtown streets and stairs of the Civic Auditorium, brilliantly uniformed marching units and cars filled with distinguished guests, city and county officials participated in the annual parade.

Special significance of this year's Armistice day celebration lay not only in the fact that it was the twentieth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, but also marked the first observance of the day as a national holiday.

Continuing the Armistice day observance, hundreds of citizens crowded the Civic Auditorium to attend memorial exercises which featured Col. C. H. Mason, chief of the first reserve area, as principal feature. A pageant entitled "Twenty Years Ago" also was presented.

The following event of the celebration will be the official Armistice day ball tonight at 9 o'clock at La. Grande building.

Headed the first division of the parade this morning were nine black and white cars of the California Highway Patrol, followed by 14 members of the city fire department. The parade was followed by four cars carrying members of the American Legion.

In the next car rode Colonel C. H. Mason, chief of staff, distinguished speaker at the Armistice day celebrations, and his wife. They were followed by a car carrying Mrs. C. H. Mason; Miss H. E. Powell, president of the American Legion Auxiliary; and the Reverend William Patrick and Paul Maloney, aides to Colonel Mason.

OFFICIALS

Succeeding cars carried Superior Court judge, county officials, members of the city council, city manager, and members of the city council. At car representing the Bakersfield Club was also included in the first division.

Colonel Mason described the first unit, which were two city fire trucks and four county fire department trucks. Leader of the first division was Capt. E. C. Bauman, "Lionheart William A. How.§

Although entirely unscathed, the Allied Volks engine and box car provided a feature attraction when it pushed on Truxton and the city's buildings for several minutes and shooting the gun. The Volksy was somewhat tardy, however.

Commander Sam Follis was the most successful on the object having landed on his trigger finger. A turn-out from 50 to 60 people was reported for the militia which achieved a 30-minute head start.

Reverend C. Rankin Barnes

ONE'S religion should give intellectual integrity, psychological soundness and social courage, said the Reverend Canon C. Rankin Barnes, pastor of the largest Episcopal Church in San Diego, when he spoke Monday night at Hotel El Tajo in a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

His subject was "Religion in the Life of the Average Business Woman of Today." Before his terms and showed the peculiar need of the person who is making a daily adjustment of her heart and status, for "loyalties to values objects of paramount importance in life."

The speaker said inimicities to religion include: being repelled by patriotism in the lives of ceg people who claim devotion to religion; sheer ignorance; and pseudo-scientific attitudes. The condenation of forgiveness with wonder in the source of religion was commented upon as was the "deep storehouse value of religion, which gives nothing to exhibit." The speaker distinguished between science and religion, and read excerpts from Westcott's "The Modern Family."

Music Enjoyed
The evening's musical program centered mainly around the church and the choir, which sang "Petrified Wood," and "Petits Armes," selected as "a renewal in life." The evening's program was introduced by the choir, and Mrs. Richard G. DeArmond, pastorate and present grand matron of St. Margarette's Guild. The choir also performed "The Christmas Carol," "Ave Maria," and "Voices of the Sky," and will perform "Ave Maria" for the bazaar.

Social Service
Sunday Held;
Convocation to Be Shared

By Many in Fresno

"Many people criticize the Christian Church because the church does not advocate particular schemes for changing the social order; does not (or should not) advocate the cause of any special economic, political or social theory and does not (or should not) espouse the cause of any one political candidate or any one party, group," said the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, yesterday morning in observance of "Social Service Sunday," as suggested by the National Department of Christian Social Service.

The rector quoted the following four suggestions made by the editor of the Living Church as to what the church could do as follows: The church should impress the sense of personal responsibility alike upon the employing and upon the employed; the church should define the moral issues connected with industry; the church should be absolutely non-partisan as between disputants and the church should point the way toward a Christian social order.

Local church meetings this week include an all-day social meeting at St. Paul's Guild, Wednesday, their rehearsal Wednesday night at 7:45 o'clock and St. Margaret's Guild, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The twelfth annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Missionary District of San Joaquin will convene at St. James, Cathedral, Fresno, Tuesday, at 10:30 o'clock with a celebration of the Holy Communion by the Right Reverend L. C. Sanford, D.D., assisted by the clergy of the diocese. The Rt. Rev. Sanford will ordain to the diocesan Aaron King of Fresne at the service and preside at the business meeting of convocation which will meet both Tuesday and Wednesday.

A banquet will be held at the Hotel Fresno Tuesday evening with Bishop Shirley Nichols of Koyo, Japan, the chief speaker. The Church Service League annual meeting will be held Wednesday and Thursday, delegates from St. Paul's Church to convocation are Dr. Fred J. Crease and Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Nash; the alternates are Mrs. William E. Patrick, Mrs. A. L. Johnson and Mrs. C. E. Wakefield, Jr.
Churchmen Join In Ordination Rites

Ordination ceremonies for C. Aaron King of Fresno, at which Episcopal churchmen from all parts of the San Joaquin diocese officiated, marked the opening of the diocesan convocation today at St. James' Cathedral.

First reports of the committee on revision of the diocesan canon law, inaugurated in 1934, were heard during the session. Proposed changes include removal of distinction between parishes and missions, application of rotation in office to the diocesan executive council and decision of certain elections by plurality vote.

The twenty eighth annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of San Joaquin opened today at St. James' Cathedral with a plea by Bishop Sanford for the ordination ceremonies for C. Aaron King of Fresno, for some time a body of goose steppers whose less aggregation steered into what was thought of as a flock of sheep or an army, whose numbers are as a flock of sheep or an army, whose numbers are often improperly estimated. Sometimes we regard our job as a static one, so many services to be performed, Bishop Sanford said, "of sympathy run wild."

Joint Effort To Defeat Paganism

Sanford Is Speaker At Opening Sessions Of Episcopal Convention

The twenty eighth annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of San Joaquin opened today at St. James' Cathedral with a plea by Bishop Louis C. Sanford for the lily and laverly to plan their common efforts intelligently "to meet the pressure of the new paganism which is triumphantly knocking at our doors."

"We of the clergy are often unaware," said Bishop Sanford, "of the weakness of our faith or the imperfections of our technique. Sometimes we regard our job as a static one, so many services to be held, so many sermons to preach, so many calls to make. A static clergyman in a static job soon will produce a static congregation and static congregations inevitably diminish.

Mistake Congregations

"Often times we regard the congregation as a flock of sheep or an army, figures often improperly used to picture a helpless, mindless aggregation steered into whatever pastures the herder chooses, or a body of groggy steppers whose only function is to obey the captain in command for the day."

"The aunts of the aunts. The pastor who herds his people like sheep or issues orders destroys initiative and interest. Planning together with them, we can challenge the interest of the wisest and strongest in our communities.

Bishop Urges Joint Effort To Defeat Paganism

"We must be alert," Bishop Sanford said, "to the fact that paganism and ecclesiasticism are on the same level, the same ground. In our day, we are called upon to defeat paganism, which is nothing more than a lack of enlightenment."

The ordination ceremonies inaugurate the twenty eighth annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of San Joaquin, which held closing sessions at St. James' Cathedral yesterday, and is returning from the recent Episcopal general convention in Cincinnati.

Kevin To Act

"Japan," Bishop Sanford said, "is a nation of people strong in will, the great powers, who speak on this subject as it is convenient and act according to their interests."

Kyoto Bishop Defends Japan’s Policy In China

Bishop Shirley H. Nichols, Episcopal bishop at Kyoto, Japan, said a Fresno yesterday the attitude of Americans towards China was a case of "sympathy run wild."

He said he considered himself a Chinese until he found out "what Americans do not know, or will not know, about the Oriental situation."

"The nine power treaty guaranteeing the territorial integrity of China, which Japan has been accused of breaking," Bishop Nichols said, "has only cloak ed the exploitation of China by the great powers, who speak on this subject as it is convenient and act according to their interests."

Bishop Nichols was present at the twenty eighth annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of San Joaquin, which held closing sessions at St. James' Cathedral yesterday, and is returning from the recent Episcopal general convention in Cincinnati.

Forced To Act

"Japan," Bishop Nichols said, "is a nation of people strong in will, the great powers, who speak on this subject as it is convenient and act according to their interests."

He said Japan unquestionably had a case of "sympathy run wild."

DEAR FRIENDS:

On Friday evening, February 11th, at 6:30 p.m. in the Guild Hall, St. Paul's Guild and St. Margaret's Guild will be hostesses at a parish supper.

We have not held a purely social gathering of the parish for a long time. A number of new families have moved into our midst. So, please save this date, come to the parish supper, meet some new friends and get re-acquainted with your old friends. An interesting program has been arranged.

There is no charge for the supper. In order, however, that the Guilds may know how many to expect, please fill out the enclosed card and mail promptly.

On Sunday, March 13, the Second Sunday in Lent, Bishop Sanford will visit St. Paul's Church for Confirmation. The Confirmation Class meets Wednesdays at 4 p.m. I shall be glad to arrange appointments at other times for conferences with adults who are "Desirous of being confirmed."

Looking forward to seeing you on the 11th.

Sincerely, your friend and rector,

WILLIAM E. PATRICK.

General Confession
To be said by all present while kneeling

Almighty and most merciful Father. We have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep; we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou, those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life. To the glory of Thy holy Name. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

PRELATE: O Lord, open Thou our lips.
ANSWER: And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.
PRELATE: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
ANSWER: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
PRELATE: Praise ye the Lord.
ANSWER: The Lord's name be praised.
CAPTAIN GENERAL: Sir Knights, be seated.

Anthem—"Christ Our Passover" Tours
CAPTAIN GENERAL: Sir Knights, Attention!
PRELATE: The earth is the Lord's and all that therein is;
The compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

ANSWER: For He hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

PRELATE: Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
Or who shall rise up in His holy place?

ANSWER: Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart; and and that hath not lifted up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbor.

PRELATE: He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

ANSWER: This is the generation of them that seek Him;
Even of them that seek Thy face, O God of Jacob.

PRELATE: Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

ANSWER: Who is this King of glory? It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

PRELATE: Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

ANSWER: Who is this King of glory? Even the Lord of hosts,
He is the King of glory.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN No. 530
(Congregation standing while Knights Templar enter)

1. Onward, Christian Soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before,
Christ, the Royal Master,
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle
See, His Banners go.

Chorus

Chorus

2. At the sign of triumph
Satan's hosts doth flee;
On, then, Christian Soldiers
On to victory!
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices.
Loud your anthems raise.

Chorus

Chorus

3. Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided.
All one Body we.
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.

Chorus

Chorus

4. Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail
We have Christ's own
promise;
And that cannot fail.

Chorus

Chorus

5. Onward, then, ye people,
Join our happy throng;
Blend with us your voices
In the triumph song.
Glory, laud and honor
Unto Christ, the King.
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.

Chorus

AMEN.
Episcopal Group to Visit Fresno

The Right Reverend Henry St. George Tucker, D.D., presided at the Episcopal Diocese of California’s special service at St. James’ Cathedral, Fresno, last Sunday night. As this will be the only public service of the archbishop and clergy members of the San Joaquin Valley, the congregation gathered around Bishop Tucker, a large delegation is expected from different points in the valley.

Bishop Tucker, formerly bishop of Vermont, and more recently bishop of Virginia, was elected to the See of St. George in 1962. He has served as president of the Province of the Pacific after 14 years in that office, having been appointed by the Right Reverend Arthur W. Moulton, D.D., Dean of St. John’s Cathedral, Berkeley.

The customary weekly choir rehearsal was held this evening as the choir has been invited to join with the cathedral choir to sing with Bishop Tucker’s visit. The Rev. Edward William E. Patrick and Mrs. Patrick returned Monday from Las Vegas, Nevada, where they attended the Provincial Council meeting last week. They made the return motor trip to Santa Barbara to bring their daughter, Miss Eleanor Patrick, home from the University of California.

On Thursday, Ascension Day, the Rev. Dr. William E. Patrick will celebrate the Holy Communion at St. John’s Cathedral in the presence of the archbishop in accordance with the custom of recent years. The service will be followed by the "United Thanksgiving of the Worshippers of the Parish." The quarterly session of the southern California District of the diocese will be held at St. John’s Cathedral, Tuesday, May 15th.

The service of orders at eleven o’clock tomorrow morning will include the following numbers: "O Blows the Lord," "William," "Bowmen," "All Creatures Give Thanks," "Psalms," "Rejoice Last King," "Benedictus," and "Amen." Other services tomorrow morning at St. Paul’s Church are the Holy Communion at 8:30 a.m., Employment Topic of Church Rector at 9:00 a.m., Parish Council at 10:30 a.m., and Confirmation at 11:00 a.m.

Consecration Rites Conducted in Fresno

The Right Reverend Karl Morgan Block, D.D., former rector of St. Michael’s Church, St. Louis, was ordained bishop coadjutor of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of California at Grace Cathedral. The Right Reverend Edward L. Parsons, D.D., bishop of California, who will retire in 1945, acting as chief consecrator with the Right Reverend W. Bertrand, D.D., bishop of Los Angeles, and the Right Reverend Thomas Johns, D.D., bishop of Nevada, as coconsecrators.

The Right Reverend Louis C. Sanford, D.D., of Fresno, bishop of San Joaquin, read the gospel. San Joaquin clergy who participated in the consecration of vested clergy were the Very Reverend James M. Mallory, Frary; the Reverend Aubrey O. Brady, P.T.; the Reverend Edward Snyder, Stanford, and the Reverend William E. Patrick, Berkeley.
Glories upon glories
  Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love Him
One day to be shared;
Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard;
Nor of these hath uttered
Thought or speech a word;
Forward! marching eastward,
Where the heaven is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight.

Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold;
Flows the gladdening river
Shedding joys untold.
Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might!
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light!

To the eternal Father
Loudest anthems raise;
To the Son and Spirit
Echo songs of praise;
To the Lord of glory,
Blessèd Three in One,
Be by men and angels
Endless honour done.
Weak are earthly praises,
Dull the songs of night:
Forward into triumph!
Forward into light! Amen.
Announcements

As no announcements will be made during the service, members of the Congregation are asked to note the following:

Opportunity to communicate having been provided at the early celebration, it is expected that only the Bishops and other officiating Clergy, and the family of the new Bishop Coadjutor will receive the Holy Communion at the Service of Consecration.

The Offering will be given to the Bishop Coadjutor for such special purposes in his work as seem to him necessary.

Members of the Congregation are requested to remain in their places until the Choir and Clergy have withdrawn at the conclusion of the Service.

The Bishops will not be accessible at the close of the Service until they have signed and sealed the Letters of Consecration.

And then for those, our dearest and our best,
By this prevailing presence we appeal;
O fold them closer to Thy mercy's breast!
O do Thine utmost for their souls' true weal!
From tainting mischief keep them white and clear,
And crown Thy gifts with strength to persevere.

And so we come; O draw us to Thy feet,
Most patient Saviour, Who canst love us still!
And by this Food, so awful and so sweet,
Deliver us from every touch of ill:
In Thine own service make us glad and free,
And grant us nevermore to part with Thee. Amen.

And immediately before the Benediction, shall be said this Prayer.

Most merciful Father, send down, we beseech thee, upon this thy servant thy heavenly blessing; and so endue him with thy Holy Spirit, that he, preaching thy Word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke, with all patience and doctrine; but also may be, to such as believe, a wholesome example in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that, faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive the crown of righteousness, laid up by the Lord Jesus, the righteous Judge, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Recessional

Hymn 531

Forward! be our watchword,
Steps and voices joined;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind;
Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led?
Forward through the desert,
Through the toil and fight!
Jordan flows before us;
Sion beams with light.
Then the Bishop Presiding and Bishops present shall lay their hands upon the head of the Elected Bishop, kneeling before them, the Bishop Presiding saying,

RECEIVE the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God, which is given thee by this Imposition of our hands; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

Then the Bishop Presiding shall deliver him the Bible, saying,

GIVE heed unto reading, exhortation, and doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men; for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts, seek the lost. Be so merciful, that you be not too remiss; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy; that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, you may receive the never-fading crown of glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Bishop Presiding shall proceed in the Communion Service; with whom the newly consecrated Bishop, with others, shall also communicate.

The Offertory (from the Oratorio "St. Paul") . . . Mendelssohn

Now we are ambassadors in the name of Christ, and God beseecheth you by us, in the name of Christ,

How lovely are the messengers that preach us the gospel of peace. To all the nations is gone forth the sound of their words, throughout all the lands their glad tidings.

The offering will be given to the Bishop Coadjutor for such special purposes in his work as seem to him necessary.

Communion Hymn 333

And now, O Father, mindful of the love That bought us, once for all, on Calvary's tree, And having with us Him that pleads above, We here present, we here spread forth to Thee, That only offering perfect in Thine eyes. The one true, pure, immortal sacrifice.

Look, Father, look on His anointed face, And only look on us as found in Him; Look not on our misusings of Thy grace, Our prayer so languid, and our faith so dim; For lo! between our sins and their reward, We set the Passion of Thy Son our Lord.

Then shall the Veni Creator Spiritus be said over him; the Bishop Presiding shall begin, and the Bishops, and the others that are present, standing, shall answer by verses, as followeth,

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
   And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
   Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.
Thy blessed unction from above,
   Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
   The dullness of our blinded sight.
Anoint and cheer our soiled face
   With the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
   Where thou art guide, no ill can come.
Teach us to know the Father, Son,
   And thee, of both, to be but One:
That, through the ages all along,
   This may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
   Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

That ended, the Bishop Presiding shall say,

Lord, hear our prayer.
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY God, and most merciful Father, who, of thine infinite goodness, hast given thy only and dearly beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be our Redeemer, and the Author of everlasting life; who, after that he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, poured down his gifts abundantly upon men, making some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some Pastors and Doctors, to the edifying and making perfect his Church; Grant, we beseech thee, to this thy servant, such grace, that he may evermore be ready to spread abroad thy Gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with thee; and use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help: so that, as a wise and faithful servant, giving to thy family their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.
WILL you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace among all men; and diligently exercise such discipline as by the authority of God's Word, and by the order of this Church, is committed to you?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

WILL you be faithful in Ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon others?

Answer. I will so be, by the help of God.

WILL you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

Answer. I will so show myself, by God's help.

Then, all standing, the Bishop Presiding shall say,

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things; Grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and irreprehensible at the latter day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then, during the singing of Hymn 493, shall the Bishop-elect put on the rest of the Episcopal habit, and shall kneel down.

HYMN 493

O Master, let me walk with Thee
In lowly paths of service free;
Tell me Thy secret; help me bear
The strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move
By some clear, winning word of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay,
And guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me Thy patience; still with Thee
In closer, dearer company,
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
In trust that triumphs over wrong,

In hope that sends a shining ray
Far down the future's broadening way,
In peace that only Thou canst give,
With Thee, O Master, let me live. Amen.
The Service of Consecration

HYMN 519

Ancient of Days, Who sittest, throned in glory;
To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love has blest the wide world's wondrous story,
With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

O Holy Father, Who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the Fire and Cloud,
Through seas dry-shod, through weary wastes bewildering,
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stillmg the rude wills of men's wild behaviour,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.

O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favour, kept to us always. Amen.

ALMIGHTY GOD, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy holy Apostles many excellent gifts, and didst charge them to feed thy flock; Give grace, we beseech thee, to all Bishops, the Pastors of thy Church, that they may diligently preach thy Word, and duly administer the godly Discipline thereof; and grant to the people, that they may obediently follow the same; that all may receive the crown of everlasting glory; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then, the people being seated, the Bishop Presiding, sitting in his chair, shall say to him that is to be Consecrated,

BROTHER, forasmuch as the Holy Scripture and the ancient Canons command, that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any person to Government in the Church of Christ, which he hath purchased with no less price than the effusion of his own blood; before we admit you to this Administration, we will examine you in certain Articles, to the end that the Congregation present may have a trial, and bear witness, how you are minded to behave yourself in the Church of God.

ARE you persuaded that you are truly called to this Ministration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the order of this Church?

Answer. I am so persuaded.

ARE you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?

Answer. I am so persuaded, and determined, by God's Grace.

WILL you then faithfully exercise yourself in the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of the same; so that you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome Doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gainsayers?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

ARE you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's Word; and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to the same?

Answer. I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

WILL you deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, rigously, and godly in this present world; that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.
That it may please thee to increase the number of the Ministers of thy Church, that the Gospel may be preached to all people;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to hasten the fulfillment of thy purpose, that thy Church may be one;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant that we, with all thy saints, may be partakers of thy everlasting kingdom;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
LORD, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.

Amen.

Minister. Hearken unto our voice, O Lord, when we cry unto thee;
Answer. Have mercy upon us and hear us.

Minister. O Lord, arise, help us;
Answer. And deliver us for thy Name's sake.

Minister. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness;
Answer. And let thy saints sing with joyfulness.

Minister. Lord, hear our prayer;
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O God, who dost ever hallow and protect thy Church; Raise up therein, through thy Spirit, good and faithful stewards of the mysteries of Christ, that by their ministry and example thy people may abide in thy favour and be guided in the way of truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same Spirit ever one God world without end. Amen.

Then shall be said this Prayer following.

A LMIGHTY God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold this thy servant, now called to the Work and Ministry of a Bishop; and so replenish him with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn him with innocency of life, that, both by word and deed, he may faithfully serve thee in this Office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edifying and well-governing of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, world without end.
Amen.

And another Bishop shall read the Epistle,
I Timothy iii. 1.

T HIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (for if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Then another Bishop shall read the Gospel.
St. John xxi. 15.

J ESUS saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee.
He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

Then shall follow the Nicene Creed.

DEDICATION OF THE BISHOP'S CATHEDRA
Given in memory of The Right Reverend and Mrs. William Ford Nichols by their family.

HYMN 451
God of the prophets! Bless the prophets' sons
Elijah's mantle o'er Elisha cast;
Each age its solemn task may claim but once:
Make each one nobler, stronger than the last!

Anoint them prophets! Make their ears attent
To Thy divinest speech; their hearts awake
To human need; their lips make eloquent
To assure the right, and every evil break.

Anoint them priests! Strong intercessors they
For pardon, and for charity and peace!
Ah, if with them the world might pass, astray,
Into the dear Christ's life of sacrifice!
Anoint them kings! Aye, kingly kings, O Lord!
Anoint them with the Spirit of Thy Son:
Theirs not a jeweled crown, a bloodstained sword;
Theirs, by sweet love, for Christ a kingdom won.

Make them apostles! Heralds of Thy cross,
Forth may they go to tell all realms Thy grace:
Inspired of Thee, may they count all but loss,
And stand at last with joy before Thy face.

O mighty age of prophet-kings, return!
O truth, O faith, enrich our urgent time!
Lord Jesus Christ, again with us sojourn:
A weary world awaits Thy reign sublime! Amen.

Then shall follow the sermon; which being ended, the Elected Bishop, vested with his Rochet, shall be presented by two Bishops of this Church unto the Bishop Presiding, sitting in his chair, near the Holy Table; the Bishops who present him saying:

REVEREND Father in God, we present unto you this godly and well-learned man, to be Ordained and Consecrated Bishop.

Then shall the Bishop Presiding demand Testimonials of the person presented for Consecration, and shall cause them to be read.

THE CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION, read by The Reverend Britton D. Weigle, Secretary of the Diocese of California.

THE CERTIFICATES OF BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION, read by The Reverend David R. Wallace, Vicar of St. Augustine's Mission, Oakland.

THE CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION TO THE DIACONATE, read by The Reverend Joseph K. Tsukamoto, Vicar of Christ Church Mission, San Francisco.

THE CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD, read by The Reverend Daniel G. C. Wu, Vicar of True Sunshine Mission, San Francisco.

THE CERTIFICATE OF CONSENTS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEES, read by The Reverend Mark Rifenburg, D.D., President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of California.

The Bishop Presiding shall then require of him the following Promise of Conformity to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

In the Name of God, Amen. I, Karl Morgan Block, chosen bishop Coadjutor of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of California, do promise conformity and obedience to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. So help me God, through Jesus Christ.

Then the Bishop Presiding shall move the Congregation present to pray, saying thus to them:

BRETHREN, it is written in the Gospel of Saint Luke, that our Saviour Christ continued the whole night in prayer, before he chose and sent forth his twelve Apostles. It is written also, that the holy Apostles prayed before they ordained Matthias to be of the number of the Twelve. Let us, therefore, following the example of our Saviour Christ, and his Apostles, offer up our prayers to Almighty God, before we admit and send forth this person presented unto us, to the work whereunto we trust the Holy Ghost hath called him.

And then shall be said the Litany for Ordinations.

O God the Father,
Have mercy upon us.
O God the Son,
Have mercy upon us.
O God the Holy Ghost,
Have mercy upon us.
O holy Trinity, one God,
Have mercy upon us.

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord; and that it may please thee to grant peace to the whole world, and to thy Church;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to sanctify and bless thy holy Church throughout the world;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to inspire all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, with love of thee and of thy truth;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue all Ministers of thy Church with devotion to thy glory and to the salvation of souls;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless this our Brother elected, and to send thy grace upon him, that he may duly execute the Office whereunto he is called, to the edifying of thy Church, and to the honour, praise, and glory of thy Name;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to guide by thy indwelling Spirit those whom thou dost call to the Ministry of thy Church; that they may go forward with courage and persevere unto the end;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
To the Members of the Parish:

January Events Listed for Guild

The final business session of St. Margaret's Guild was held last evening at the Guild's new hall, with Mrs. Percy Cooke, presiding. The report of the treasurer showed a surplus of $155 for the new Guild, and Mrs. A. Sprague was hostess for the evening.

Confirmation to Be Given by Bishop Here Soon

Confirmation classes will be given at St. Paul's Episcopal Church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock and will continue each Wednesday afternoon at that time until the annual visitation to St. Paul's Church of the Right Reverend Louis C. Sanford, D.D., Bishop of San Joaquin, who will begin his second year of visitation, is held on the third Sunday in Lent, February 18.

St. Paul's Church

Saint Paul's Church held its 11th annual Guild meeting this year, following the business meeting in Ascensiontide and Lent. The Guild will hold a special meeting on January 25 at 7:30 o'clock at the rector's house.

United Choirs Will Hold Practice Here

In connection with the thirteenth annual convocation of the Protestant Missionary District of San Joaquin a united choir service will be held at St. Paul's Church Tuesday evening, January 16, under the auspices of the southern deanery. The choirs of the Episcopal churches in Kern and Tulare Counties will take part. ATTENDANCE HEAD NAMED BY BOARD

H. W. Kelley to Take Over Position of Louslot as Result of Action

Appointment of H. W. (Pap) Kelley as attendance officer of Kero Union High School was announced today by Dr. Thomas Nelson, superintendent of the high school. Mr. Kelley will succeed John E. Louslot, newly-elected sheriff of Kern county.

Mr. Kelley's attendance officer will take over January 1. In addition, Mr. Kelley has held the position for the past nine years.

Mr. Kelley had been with the attendance office of the county superintendent of schools since last summer, coming from Visalia High School, where he served for several years. He worked on his A. B. degree from Stanford University in 1924 and earned his M. A. degree there in 1926.

Dr. Nelson announced that the new appointment will bring to the position a wide background of knowledge in attendance work.

Prior to coming to Visalia he was athletic director at Pacific Grove High School. For the past 10 years he has been well-known in the valley as an official at high school football games. Mr. Kelley is married and the father of three children.

AT THE recent breakfast of the executive board of the Church Federation of Bakersfield, Mrs. William E. Patrick, vice-president of the service league of San Joaquin, spoke on the adoption of a resolution by the national executive board of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Protestant Episcopal Church, expressing its sympathy with the Jewish people of central Europe. Whenupon the board adopted the following resolution:

"We, the executive board of the church federation, representing the women of the various churches of Bakersfield, desire to express our grief and dismay at the persecution of the Jewish people in central Europe."

"At this Christmas season when we remember a Jewish family for whom there was no room in the inn at Bethlehem, we are sorrowfully aware of the countless numbers of their race who are today seeking shelter for themselves and their children.

"We call upon the women throughout the church to celebrate the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ by showing in simple, friendly ways, their sympathy with their Jewish neighbors and the refugees who have come to this country. We also urge the democratic international government action for the relief of refugees and to work for a larger measure of justice and consideration for all Jews and other minority groups in our national life."

The next meeting of the church federation will be held on Thursday afternoon, November 30, in the Bakersfield church, opening the program of the following: Opening prayer by Mrs. W. S. Winter's, First Baptist church; reading, "How Come Christmas?" by Mrs. Keith McKee of First Presbyterian church; selected carols by quartet of First Christian Church; Christmas meditation by Mrs. Ted Evans of Trinity Methodist church; community singing by Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson of St. Paul's Episcopal church; Paul's Guild members will serve at noon.

social relations topic of rector

"Social service is the practical, inevitable, necessary consequence and complement of spiritual belief," the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, told his congregation yesterday morning. "We need a thorough regeneration, an awakening to mutual relationships and responsibilities all through society. The idea of the church as a force for righteousness is still sound, for spiritual power is the only power that can save us from wickedness, selfishness, degeneration and lawlessness; and good will between individuals, classes and nations."

Deer Friends:

During Lent we shall have a week day celebration of the Holy Communion Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m. and on Fridays the Children’s Service at 4:00 p.m. The Sunday Services will be at the usual hours.

On Sunday morning, February 26th, at 11:00 a.m., the Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D. D., Bishop of San Joaquin, will administer the Rite of Confirmation. Since his consecration in 1911 the Bishop has missed only one year of visitations when he was ill two years ago. We rejoice in his restored health. Because of his long service on the National Council and as President of the Province of the Pacific, Bishop Sanford is now one of the “Elder Statesmen” of the House of Bishops. As an evidence of our esteem and affection let us welcome him with a crowded church Sunday morning.

In accordance with custom the offering Sunday will go to the Bishop’s Visitation Fund, which the Bishop generally uses towards the missionary work in our own District. As a further testimony of our appreciation let us present a generous offering for this purpose. Enclosed you will find a special envelope.

Faithfully yours,

WILLIAM E. PATRICK, Rector.
San Joaquin Bishop Confirms Class at Church

"FAITH, hope and love are the great gifts of God" the Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D. D., Bishop of San Joaquin told the large congregation that welcomed the bishop at St. Paul's Episcopal Church yesterday morning. "Those who exemplified these virtues in their daily lives were answering St. Paul's prayer, 'We beseech that ye receive not the grace of God in vain,'" which the speaker quoted from the Epistle for the First Sunday in Lent. Those failing to support the missionary work of the church had received the grace of God in vain, the bishop concluded.

The following persons received the historic laying on hands in confirmation: Meandres Carrie MacDonald, Lila Lee Johnson, Elizabeth R. Preston; the Misses Barbara Ann Conley, Audrey Forrest, Constance L. MacDonald, Elizabeth J. Moore, Sidney C. Moore, Margaret E. Siddall and Bernice A. Steward; Mesare, Clarence D. Jones, Clarence A. Preston, George E. Preston, Jr., Vance Preston and Robert J. Smith. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector, officiated at the service of morning prayer and presented the candidates for confirmation, with W. W. Simons, Jr., crucifix, and Burton Covel as flag bearer. The choir under the direction of C. E. Walkerfield, Jr., choirmaster, with Miss Gayle Adams, organist, sang the anthem, "Jerusalem" from Gounod's sacred cantata, "Gallia."

Meetings and services at St. Paul's Church include the Wednesday morning celebration of holy communion at 9 o'clock; St. Paul's Guild, all day meeting, Wednesday; choir rehearsal Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and weekly children's lenten service Friday at 4 o'clock.

Bishop Sanford to Confirm Class at Taft Next Sunday

TAFT, March 3. (Special)—The Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, bishop of the San Joaquin Episcopal churches, will make his official visit to the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Taft on Sunday. He will confirm a class of eight, composed of adults and youth who have been receiving instruction under the Reverend Aubrey Bray, vicar of St. Andrew's. The confirmation will take place at the 11 o'clock service, according to the announcement. Holy eucharist will be celebrated with the Reverend Bray as celebrant. Bishop Sanford will give absolution and blessing. The ceremony of confirmation will follow church announcements and the Nicene creed. Bishop Sanford will preach after the ceremony.

There will be a parish dinner in the Guild Hall immediately after the service. On Monday evening the visiting bishop will meet with the vestry in regular monthly session. Men of the church will discuss church affairs with Bishop Sanford after the monthly session. A speaking engagement at the West Side all-church convention day will keep the bishop in Taft Tuesday. He will open the convention at 9:30 o'clock with the subject, "The Mission of the Church." At noon he will address the Taft Chamber of Commerce on "Business and the Church."

Mrs. Sanford is to be in Taft with her husband. They will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pope Foster while here.

St. Paul's Guild Sewing Tomorrow

St. Paul's Guild will hold an all-day sewing meeting in the guild hall following the weekly lenten service of holy communion at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The choir will rehearse tomorrow evening, at 4:45 o'clock. On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock the rector will conduct the weekly children's service. The Reverend and Mrs. William E. Patrick returned last night from Fresno where the local pastor attended a meeting of the executive council of the Diocese of San Joaquin held at St. James' Cathedral, Fresno.

SUBJECT ANNOUNCED
"City Life Around the World" will be the theme of the lenten missionary stories to be told the children of St. Paul's Episcopal Church by the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector, at the Friday afternoon lenten services beginning tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.
Communion Services Is Slated at Church

The annual corporation of the Young People’s Fellowship of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church will be held tomorrow morning at 8 o’clock. At the same service will take place the communion service of the children of the church. Rev. W. P. Sanford, Rector of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, will attend and deliver a sermon. The communion service will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. E. Patrick, Bishop of South Carolina, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. J. E. Patrick, Bishop of South Carolina.

The Young People's Fellowship will hold a corporate communion at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and Sunday school following at 11:45.
Patriotic Units Attend Services

Before representatives of the various patriotic units held their annual memorial meeting at the Methodists Church, the Reverend William E. Patrick, pastor, national chaplain of the American Legion, paid tribute to the service of the armed forces. He urged Western Pennsylvanians to continue their support of our fighting forces during this critical period.

FINAL plans were completed today for Memorial Day services which will begin tomorrow morning at 8:30 in Union cemetery, according to Mayor Haverlock, general chairman. The ceremonies are being held under the auspices of the American Legion, Auxiliary and Bakersfield Superintendent of Bakersfield.

Following the singing of the opening hymn, the Reverend William E. Patrick will give the invocation.

Stores and banks, as well as public offices, will be closed in Bakersfield all day tomorrow in observance of Memorial Day. All schools, the city hall, courthouse, and the county home will be closed in honor of the day.

Auxiliary glee club will lead the assembly in singing America. The glee club, conducted by Charles E. Wakefield, Jr., with Miss Florence Bayles as accompanist, will present a selection.

At 11 a.m., a special benediction will be pronounced by the Reverend W. B. Lyons, head of the primary department, Miss Margaret D. Garfield, county superintendent, and the Reverend William E. Patrick, pastor. Following the benediction, the following committee took charge of the program:

The Computer: Helen Burton, Margaret Burton, Helen Paul, Ruth Campbell, and Tournament of St. Paul's Fellowship, Burton F. Cove, Jr., president, also attended.

Perfect Attendance

The following children received citations for perfect attendance for the school year: Elizabeth Moor, Raymond Patrick, Helen Ward and Missy Davis. At the close of the school year, five-year attendance certificate was presented to the Reverend W. B. Lyons, head of the primary department, Miss Margaret D. Garfield, county superintendent, and the Reverend William E. Patrick, pastor.

At 8:30 under the direction of Charles E. Wakefield, Jr., the Bakersfield Church school superintendent and the Reverend William E. Red Cross Unit Completes Christmas Bags for Group

COMPLETION of 25 Christmas bags destined for army and navy servicemen in distant outposts was announced today by the Bakersfield Chapter American Red Cross. The work was under the supervision of Mrs. W. B. Lyons and directed by Miss Margaret, Gardett, of St. Paul's Guild. The bags are now on display at the show windows.

Each bag contains a notebook and combination pen and pencil set, safety razor, blades, shaving cream, wash cloths, soap, toothbrush and paste, talcum powder, comb and file set, playing cards, assorted games, pocket knife. Christmas greeting card and return post card. The articles are supplied by the local chapter which is assisted by auxiliaries of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Junior Red Cross groups within the chapter are extending greetings to these groups in far-flung outposts by sending Christmas packages. It is planned that these groups will be active in 19 county schools during this season, collecting and distributing gifts which will be sent to boys and girls their own ages.

"Large bags are scheduled to be shipped soon to the Pacific Coast and to the Red Cross, where they will be packed for Christmas distribution. Approximately $600 junior Red Cross members will also be sent to young children. The other boxes will be shipped to American Samoa, Alaska, Japan, Norway, Sweden and the British Isles, according to reports, announced. The East Bakersfield High School Junior Red Cross groups were the first group to deliver their boxes to the local chapter office, it was reported. Their adviser is Miss Lois Smith.

Rev. Patrick Traces St. Paul’s Growth

The first service according to the Prayer Book of the Protestant Episcopal Church to be held in Kern county was conducted by the Right Reverend William Ingram Rip, D. D., bishop of California, in October, 1855," the Reverend William R. Patrick, rector of St. Paul’s Church, told his congregation at the morning service yesterday. Bishop Rip held services and baptized several children at the Fort Tejon army post before moving along by slow wagon train up the valley to Fort Tejon and Stockton, a weeklong journey from San Pedro. The address, in part, was as follows:

"In addition to Roman Catholic services, Hesperian Episcopal clergy held services at the old county seat of Havilah. Their names have long been forgotten. After the removal of the county seat to the new town of Bakersfield occasional services were held. The Book of Common Prayer were conducted by the Reverend Mr. W. E. Hill, A. C. Tushner and D. O. Kelley.

Reverend Visit in 1879

"To Archdeacon Kelley, indefatigable founder of missions throughout the San Joaquin valley, goes the credit of definite organization of St. Paul’s mission in November, 1879. The Reverend Thomas A. Griffiths was the first resident clergyman, reorganizing on account of ill health in 1882.

"When the third pastor, the Reverend Horace Clapham (1884-1890), was conducting services in what is now the Emerson School, Alfred Harrall, publisher of The Bakersfield Californian and former vestryman of St. Paul’s Church, was city superintendent of schools. One of his parishioners, Mrs. H. E. Borden, still an active communicant, used to drive into Bakersfield from Greenfield as a young girl to sing in the choir with the late Mrs. W. A. Chilandy as organist.

Open First Church

"On the third visit of Bishop Rip to Bakersfield in 1886, the first St. Paul’s Church was opened on the Seventeenth street site. In 1891 when Bishop William Ford Nichols consecrated the church, the mission assumed independent parochial status.

"The Reverend Menor, L. Y. Jesse, F. D. Miller, David Holmes, Robert Chetwood ministered in the old church. In 1896 the Guild hall still in servicable use was built. Active in the guild, which was instrumental in sponsoring the erection of a Guild hall, were Mrs. Alfred Harrall and Mrs. A. C. Mange, regular communicants today.

"In 1911 under the leadership of the Reverend Edward Morgan the new church was constructed.

The old church was moved to East Bakersfield where for many years it was known as St. Barnabas’ Chapel.

New Church Built

"On January 1, 1908, Bishop Nichols of California opened the new church, the same time blessing the beautiful marble altar, the gift of the late Mrs. William S. Tevis, known as the Tevis Caduceus Memorial, in memory of her father, former Governor of California. Under the Reverend Charles Hitchcock nearly all the indebtedness on the church was erased making it possible for the Right Reverend Louis C. Sanford, D. D., who had been elected first missionary bishop of San Joaquin, when the great valley and mountain counties adjoining were set off as a separate jurisdiction, to consolidate the church.

Convocation in Kern

"Convocation of the church was held at the same time the first convocation of San Joaquin visited Bakersfield. Alfred Harrall was toastmaster of the convocation dinner held at the Southern Hotel. In addition to Bishop Sanford, the speakers included Colonel A. S. Crites, Colonel Ira Hochheimer and Judge T. N. Harvey.

"Under the Reverend David M. Crabtree, rector from 1907 to 1932, the pipe organ now in use in St. Paul’s Church was installed. Preceding Mr. Crabtree for two years was the Reverend Walter B. Clark and following him were the Reverend Moses, Charles Hichcock, Benjamin E. Diggs, George E. Resin and the Reverend William Craig, who moved to Merced in 1924.

"Convocation met in St. Paul’s Church for the second time after 13 years in January, 1938. Bishop Sanford was then on a tour of the missionary work in the orient, at the request of the National Council. The Reverend William E. Patrick presided at the convocation dinner.

Baptize 288 Persons

"The rector in the last quarter of the 60 years’ history of the parish has baptized 384 children and adults, presented 213 persons for confirmation and affiliated at 311 burial services. In addition to carrying on a regular Sunday and weekday services of the church.

In the church school we should give a certificate of merit to Miss Margaret D. Carpenter, superintendent, who has given 28 years to Sunday School work and to Mrs. W. B. Lyons, who is finishing her twentieth year as supervisor of the primary department.
At the present time the Reverend Mr. Patrick is president of the Council of Advice, vice-president of the Executive Council, dean of the Camp Sierra Summer School, chairman of the Diocesan Promotional Department and a member of the Council of the Province of the Pacific. Other church offices held include those of rural dean of the Southern Deanery, chairman of departments of finance, field, religious education and social service at different times, chairman of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the San Joaquin District and of Bishop Sanford's consecration held in Fresno in 1935; deputy to the Denver General Convention in 1931 and delegate to the Provincial Synod.

A director of the original Community Welfare Fund, past-president of the Ministerial Association, the Bakersfield Lions Club, the local pastor is a director of the Red Cross Chapter, the Camp Fire Council and the Anti-Tuberculosis League, and a member of the California Advisory Committee of the National Youth Administration. He is a past national chaplain of the American Legion, of the Second Division Association, and of the Army and Navy Legion of Valor as holder of the Distinguished Service Cross.

Mrs. Patrick is educational chairman of the Diocesan Service League and has been several times a delegate to the National and Provincial Auxiliary. In the community she has been president of the Emerson P. T. A. and of the Legion Auxiliary.

SIXTY YEARS OF ST. PAUL'S PARISH

Services of the Protestant Episcopal Church were first held in Kern County by the Right Reverend William I. Kip, D. D., first Bishop of California, who visited Fort Tejon in October, 1855, and then passed the site of Bakersfield on his famous wagon pilgrimage from San Pedro to Stockton.

Occasional services had been held in Havilah by itinerant clergymen and in Bakersfield by the Reverend Messrs. W. H. Hill, A. Todhunter and D. O. Kelley. To D. O. Kelley, indefatigable founder of missions in San Joaquin, goes the honor of organizing St. Paul's Mission in November, 1879, with D. G. McLean as warden. The Reverend T. A. Griffiths was the first resident clergyman.

When the third pastor, the Reverend H. Horace Clapham (1884-1892), was using what is now the Emerson School for services, Mr. Alfred Harrell, now the publisher of The Bakersfield Californian these forty years past and sometime vestryman of St. Paul's Church, was city school superintendent. Mrs. H. P. Bender, one of the school teachers, as a young girl, drove into Bakersfield from Greenfield to sing in the choir under the late Mrs. W. A. Chittenden, organist.

On the third visit of Bishop Kip to Kern County in 1886 the first St. Paul's Church was opened on the Seventeenth Street site. In 1891 when Bishop Nichols consecrated the Church, parish status was assumed with Captain Charles E. Jewett and Dr. John Snook as wardens; C. Bickerdike, treasurer and Joseph V. Morley as clerk.

The Reverend Messrs. F. D. Miller, David Holmes, Hobart Chetwood and Edward Morgan "ministered" in the old Church. Active in the Guild, which was largely responsible for the erection of the Guild Hall in 1898, were Mrs. Alfred Harrell and Mrs. A. C. Maude, regular communicants today.

Successors to Father Morgan were the Reverend Messrs. Walter B. Clark, David M. Crabtree, Charles Hitchcock, Benjamin A. Diggs, George E. Renison and William A. Cash. Changed conditions with quicker methods of transportation caused the giving up of the missions in Rosedale, Greenfield and East Bakersfield. Bishop A. R. Graves, retired bishop of the Platte, had charge for the summer of 1912. The present rector, the Reverend William E. Patrick, will complete his fifteenth year as rector in March, 1940.

The present Church was opened by Bishop W. F. Nichols of California on January 1, 1902, when he blessed the beautiful marble altar, the gift of the late Mrs. William S. Tevis, in memory of her father, Romualdo Pacheco, Governor of California. In 1915, the first time San Joaquin District held Convocation in Bakersfield, the Right Reverend L. C. Sanford, D. D., who had been elected first Bishop of San Joaquin when the district was set off from the parent diocese, consecrated the Church.

Bishop Sanford was absent on the second occasion in 1928 when Convocation assembled in this parish, having been sent on a missionary tour around the world by the National Council. Now 12 years later St. Paul's Parish welcomes Convocation a third time and is especially pleased to congratulate the head of the episcopal jurisdiction, who for half the organized history of the parish has been our bishop. We extend our sincerest greetings to him and Mrs. Sanford and to the visitors from the other parishes of San Joaquin.

The 1940 vestry consists of Dr. Fred J. Crease, senior warden (senior member of the vestry and forty years a member of the parish); G. E. Stanfield, junior warden; W. A. Alexander, clerk; C. E. Wakefield, Jr., treasurer; Handel W. Kelly, J. S. Kirkendall, W. E. Peterson and F. S. Wheeler.

Presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries and treasurers of the parochial societies as named are as follows: Altar Guild, Mrs. C. E. Wakefield, Jr., Miss Laura Covel; St. Paul's Guild, Mesdames B. F. Covel, Sr., Ed Rose, Fred W. Keller, Percy T. Neate (U. T. O. custodian); St. Margaret's Guild, Mesdames Heber B. Kelly, Ed Miller, Miss Nora Trafton and Miss Elizabeth Hammond. Young People's Fellowship, B. F. Covel, Jr., Ruth Patrick, Audrey Forest and Constance Macdonald.

Superintendent of the Church School is Miss Margaret D. Gardett, who has been active in the work for 28 years. Head of the Primary Department for 20 continuous years is Mrs. W. B. Lyons. Miss Helen Moore, secretary; Miss Mary Lynn Tuttle, organist and Miss Katherine Wakefield, pianist for the Primary, complete the list of officers with 16 teachers.

C. E. Wakefield, Jr., is choir director and Mrs. Laura E. Nichols, organist.

In addition to those above named, the family names taken from three parish registers of Coons, Taylor, Brundage, Mills, Packard, McGrann, Lechner, Drury, Scott, Williams, Miller, Baker, Barker, Planz, Jameson, Thomas, Wright, Hughes, McMurdo, Conley, Webster, McCray, Ikin, Seabrook, Deabill, Campbell, Cooper, Elbert, Potts, App, Wrenn, Cooke, Sweitzer, Smith, Schuler, Oldershaw, Wilson, Gault, Johnson, Wykes and hosts of others, represent active workers in present and past history of choir, Altar Guild, St. Paul's Guild, St. Margaret's Guild, Sunday School, Service League, as well as on parochial and diocesan committees.

The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of the parish for the last quarter of its 60 years of history, is a native of Cambridge, Massachusetts, a graduate of Harvard University and the Episcopal Theological School. Ordained by Bishop William Lawrence he served first as curate of Grace Church, New Bedford, and then, after two years service overseas with the A. E. F., he was rector of St. Paul's Church, North Andover, moving from Massachusetts to California in 1922 to take charge of St. Paul's Church, Santa Paula, in the dioece of Los Angeles.

Dean Malloch to Speak at Lunch

The Very Reverend James M. Malloch, dean of the cathedral church of St. James, Fresno, a visitor to the thirtieth annual convocation now in session at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will speak to the members of the Bakersfield Lions Club at their weekly luncheon tomorrow noon at El Tejon hotel. Dean Malloch, a holder of two degrees from the University of California, is a graduate of the Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

Before entering the ministry he was associate director of research in the Berkeley public schools, a member of the faculty of San Francisco State College, and later in business life served as manager of the wholesale accounts bureau of the Associated Oil Company in San Francisco and head of the publicity department of the Piedmont public schools.

BISHOP LOUIS SANFORD
He Directs Episcopal Conclave

The Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D. D., LL. D., missionary bishop of San Joaquin, who is to Bakersfield with Mrs. Sanford to attend the thirtieth annual convocation of the missionary district of San Joaquin, is one of the "elder statesmen" of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

A native of Bristol, R. I., Bishop Sanford graduated from Brown University and the Episcopal Theological School of Cambridge. Volunteering for western missionary duty he was assigned to St. Luke's Church, Selma, and St. Michael's, Fowler, being ordained priest in California. In 1886 Bishop Sanford was transferred to Salinas, resigning in two years to take the parish of St. John the Evangelist in San Francisco. His church and rectory were destroyed in the 1906 fire.

In 1910 Bishop Sanford was elected missionary bishop of San Joaquin when the district was given separate jurisdiction.

Bishop Sanford has held many positions of responsibility in the national affairs of the Protestant Episcopal Church, having served 12 years on the national council and for 14 years as president of the Province of the Pacific. With the Reverend William B. Patrick of Bakersfield, he is again serving on the executive council of the provincial synod.

In the years 1917-1920 Bishop Sanford, in company with Dr. John W. Wood, national council foreign secretary, toured the world investigating foreign missionary work.

In 1928 Bishop Sanford was honored in Fresno on the twentieth anniversary of his consecration as bishop, in conjunction with the anniversary of the San Joaquin district.

At the first convocation in Bakersfield in 1915, Bishop Sanford consecrated the present St. Paul's Church, erected in 1903 by the Reverend Edward Morgan. Bishop Sanford is the presiding officer of the convocation and will also act as toastmaster at the annual convocation banquet at 7 p.m. tomorrow at Hotel El Tejon.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN HEAR LEADER; PLAN DINNER

MRS. WALTER MITCHELL of Phoenix, Ariz., provincial representative of the national executive board of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Province of the Pacific, St. Paul's Episcopal Church yesterday, speaking to St. Paul's Guild in the afternoon, and to St. Margaret's Guild in the evening at a supper meeting.

Mrs. Mitchell, the wife of Bishop Mitchell of Arizona, and sister of Bishop William F. Remington of eastern Oregon, gave an interesting account of the work of the Woman's Auxiliary and urged special support of the united thank offering. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of the parish, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Heber B. Kelly presided at the business session of St. Margaret's Guild. Mrs. Percy Cooke, past president, announced that final payment had been made on the carpet installed in the church several months ago and sponsored by St. Margaret's Guild. Ten dollars was voted as the Red Cross fund and $15 voted for the rector's use in helping some member of the Young People's Fellowship attend the San Josquin summer school to be held at Camp Sierra next month.

For the final meeting before the summer recess, the Misses Helen Pluim and Merle L. Scates were appointed a committee to arrange for a dinner next Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Hotel Palace to be followed by a social evening. It was announced that Mesdames Neete, Patrick and C. E. Wakefield, Jr., will donate prizes with Mrs. John C. Gaul and Mrs. Wakefield in charge of tallies.

Mrs. Burton F. Covel, president of St. Paul's Guild, presided at the business of St. Paul's Guild held yesterday afternoon. Work on quilts as well as work for the Red Cross will be taken up next Wednesday.

Five dollars was also voted for the Camp Sierra fund. Announcement was made that St. Paul's Guild had taken its turn in providing luncheon for blind workers Tuesday under the auspices of the Bakersfield Federation of Church women. A picnic is planned for June 12.

GRISLY EVIDENCE FROM WAR GOD

Cannon Like This May Hurl Death-Dealing Shells on Britain

Upper photo, one of collection owned by the Reverend William E. Patrick of Bakersfield, shows a World War I gun used by Germans to shell port city of Dunkirk. Gun of this size could easily fire from present German bases onto coast of England. Gun above was in French hands after Armistice when photo was made. Below is sentinel of death stuck on barbed wire entanglement, gazin with sightless eye sockets across no-man's land, which was to blaze anew 25 years later with return invasion by Germans under new commander, Hitler.
Miss Margret D. Gardett, superintendent of St. Paul’s Sunday School, who has been associated with the school for 28 years, and Mrs. W. H. Lyons, who this year has completed 29 years as head of the primary department, will retire from their Sunday School activities, the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, announced at the closing exercises held in the church auditorium. Both at the school program and at the evening service following the Reverend Mr. Patrick paid a glowing tribute of appreciation to the long service of the retiring officers.

Sign Ceilings
Certificates signed by Miss Gardett, Mrs. Lyons and the rector were awarded the following children promoted from the primary department to the main school: Betty Bell, Don Chilton, Cy Consalvi, Patsy Ann Cox, Beverly Creson, Bobby Curran, Shirley Gill, Billy Karch, Content Kitchend, Joseph Morley, King O’Neal, Margaret Jean Parker, Parker Peacock and Larry Stone.

Records for excellent attendance read by the rector included the following names: Perfect attendance, Patsy Kelly, Raymond H. Patrick, Patsy Ann Cox, Jean Veen, Katherine Wakefield; absent once, Cy Consalvi; absent twice, Mrs. Lyons, Harry Wakefield; absent three times, Mrs. Daniella McFarland, Joan Peacock; absent four times, Suzanne Beatty, Helen Covey, Johnny Hignite, Linda Hopkins, Billy Karch, Parker Peacock and Dorothy Shaffer.

Shirley Gill and Cy Consalvi were awarded prize books donated by the teachers of the primary department and Johnny Hignite received a book prize from Mrs. Lyons who, as in former years, provided the promotion certificates. Cross and flag bearers for the procession were John Kelly, Thomas Kirby and Thomas Holm. Miss Philippa App played the organ, the program including one selection by the primary school in addition to the hymns sung by the whole group.

During the summer, the sessions of the Sunday School will be omitted to resume on the second Sunday in September, when the new officers will take charge. From now up to and including August 4, the service schedule will consist of Holy Communion at 8 o’clock, with a later service at 11 o’clock, the rector announced.

On Wednesday, St. Paul’s Guild will hold an all-day sewing meeting to quilt and also to sew for the Red Cross. On Wednesday, at 6 o’clock St. Margaret’s Guild will hold a supper and social evening for its members as the first opportunity before beginning again in September.

TO HOLD DINNER
St. Margaret’s Guild of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church will hold a dinner at 6 o’clock Wednesday evening at the guard hall. Tickets are $1. Several prizes will be given. Misses Merle Samples and Helen Flann are the program chairman.

Urge State to Complete Tehachapi Road

Nomination of officers for the coming year and adoption of a resolution requesting the state highway commission to speed up completion of the Bakersfield-Tehachapi highway were major items of business transacted by Legionnaires at a meeting of the Kern County American Legion Council in Tehachapi yesterday afternoon.

Auxiliary members also met in regular monthly session.

The resolution to the state highway commission asked that the dedication of the Tehachapi road above Kese be completed as soon as possible.

The highway to Bakersfield west of Kese has been completed during the past year, leaving only the upper link to provide fast highway facilities to the Mojave Valley from the valley.

Nominations for county legion posts included, for commander, James Christensen, Randsburg; Tommy Stevenson; Bakerfield, and Ed Phillips, McFarland; for vice-commander, Tommy Stevenson and Claude Murray; Delano chaplain, the Reverend William E. Patrick, Bakersfield, who has served as chaplain for 14 years.

Nominations for auxiliary posts included, for president, Mrs. A. W. Brick, Taft; first vice-president, Catherine Christensen, Randsburg; Mrs. Dave Chenness, Bakersfield, second vice-president, Mrs. G. C. Grubler, Wasco; Mrs. Z. V. Hoskins, Bakersfield.

Election will be held on July 21 when Legionnaires and auxiliary members hold a picnic at Kern River Park. The next district meeting will be held in Delano on July 7.

Arrangements for yesterday's meeting, which included a Dutch lunch in the new Tehachapi memorial hall, were made by Angus Greene, commander of the Tehachapi post, and Mrs. Belle Kruger, president of the Tehachapi auxiliary.

A trip to the Tehachapi women's prison was held prior to the meeting.

Walter Sugkel of Tulare, fifteenth district commander, and Mrs. Ethel Lewis, fifteenth district auxiliary president, were present.

A CALL to Christians to unite in a national day of prayer for peace to the world will be answered by Bakersfield and Kern church folk on Sunday when they will join with millions of other devout American citizens in the National Day of Prayer proclaimed by President F. D. Roosevelt.

In a proclamation the President set aside Sunday, September 5, as America’s Day of Prayer when teachers and school administrations were asked to pray “for this land and for the peoples of all nations, a righteous, enduring peace.”

Bakersfield and Kern pastors, cooperating fully with the President, have services in practically all churches to the end of praying for “peace.” They have selected sermon topics that will emphasize the duties of Christians as patriots during times of national stress.

“Every loyal and patriotic Christian should be in his pew to engage in public prayer next Sunday,” the Reverend W. E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, said today. “Reverend Mr. Patrick serves during the World War II and held this office nationally for the American church.

Local groups are invited to attend services in groups at the various churches.

In England a few months ago, every church was crowded to capacity to hear the similar plea for local pastors and their congregations.
